It's Up To Us . . .

Participation

Just like
Links of a chain
People join together
Sometimes the groups
Are mandatory-
Like school
Sometimes they're Voluntary-
Like A.F.S.
Maybe it's the urge
To identify with
A group
Or to compete
With others
In the same field
Or to wade
Into the Main stream of life
Even if you
Remain a hermit
You're participating in
"Individualism"
After all,
Birds of a feather
Flock
Together.

To Measure Up

Everybody has to have goals-
Some are realistic
Some aren't Six A's are more than Impossible
For some people
For that matter,
Two
Are more than
Some people can hack.
It's no good to set goals
If you aren't willing To work
Toward them.
Maybe college isn't
Your dream
And it doesn't look Glamorous, but Neither does
Waiting on tables
Or pumping gas.
Life is a privilege and
Your responsibility.
If you aren't headed Anywhere in particular You'll move
Right into a Checkmate.

Choosing a Lifestyle

Just like colors,
No
Two people
Are exactly alike
Each person is unique
Life, a constant blending
Of tones-
Blended until the perfect
Shade is achieved.
Hues of values
Help you decide
Which people are your friends
And where you Spend your time.
Colors change with time.
This week more studying
Less socializing.
Sometimes
You have to get a clean glass
And start all over.
Remember,
Most people aren't Finished
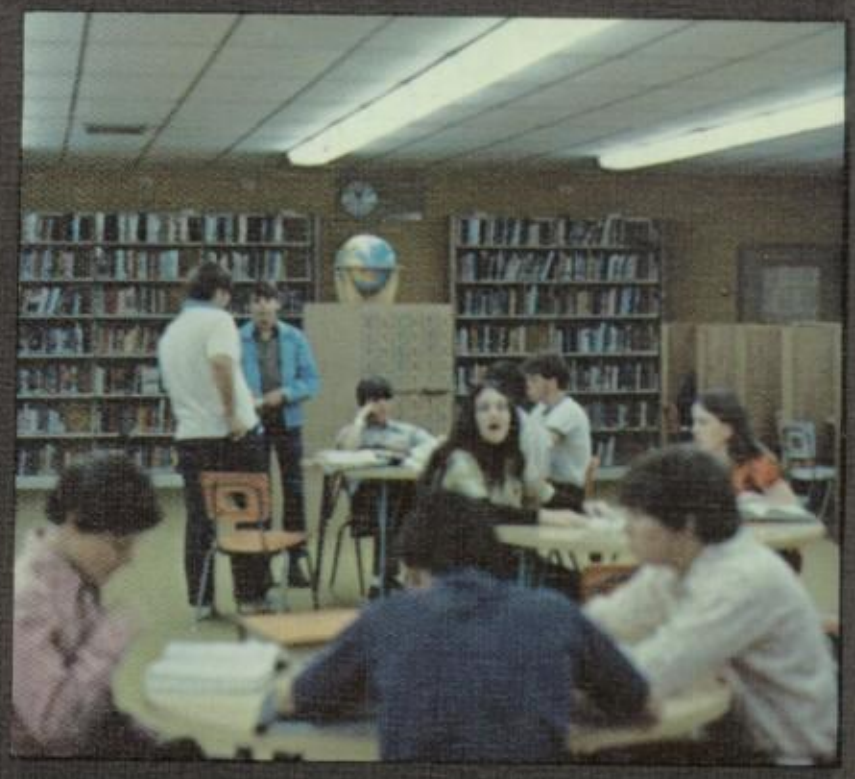
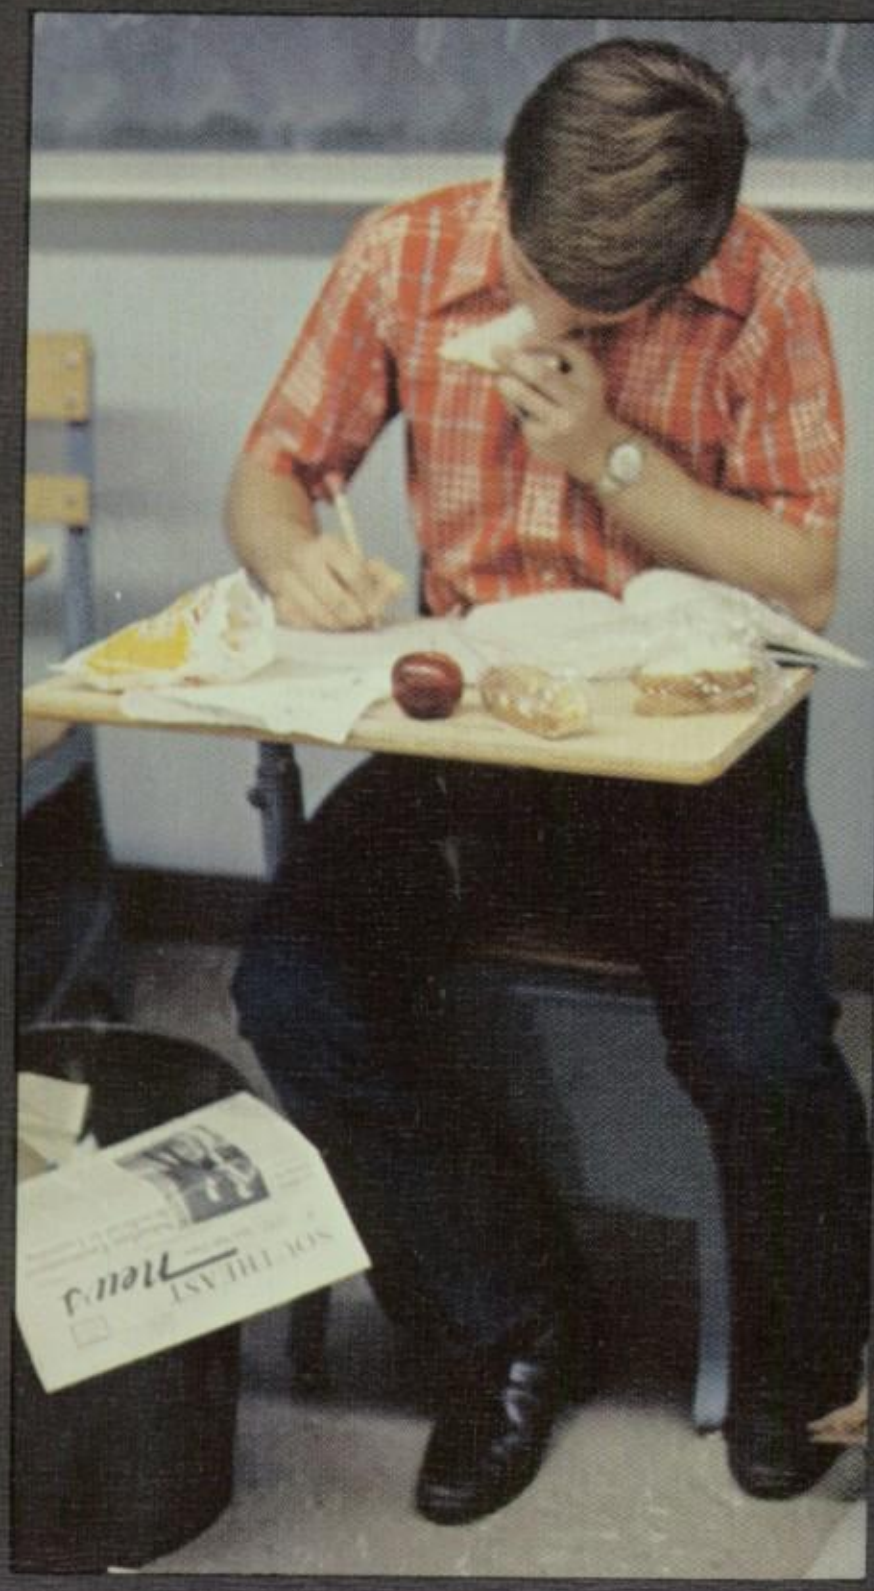
Choosing their colors,
Yet.





THE LIBRARY IS

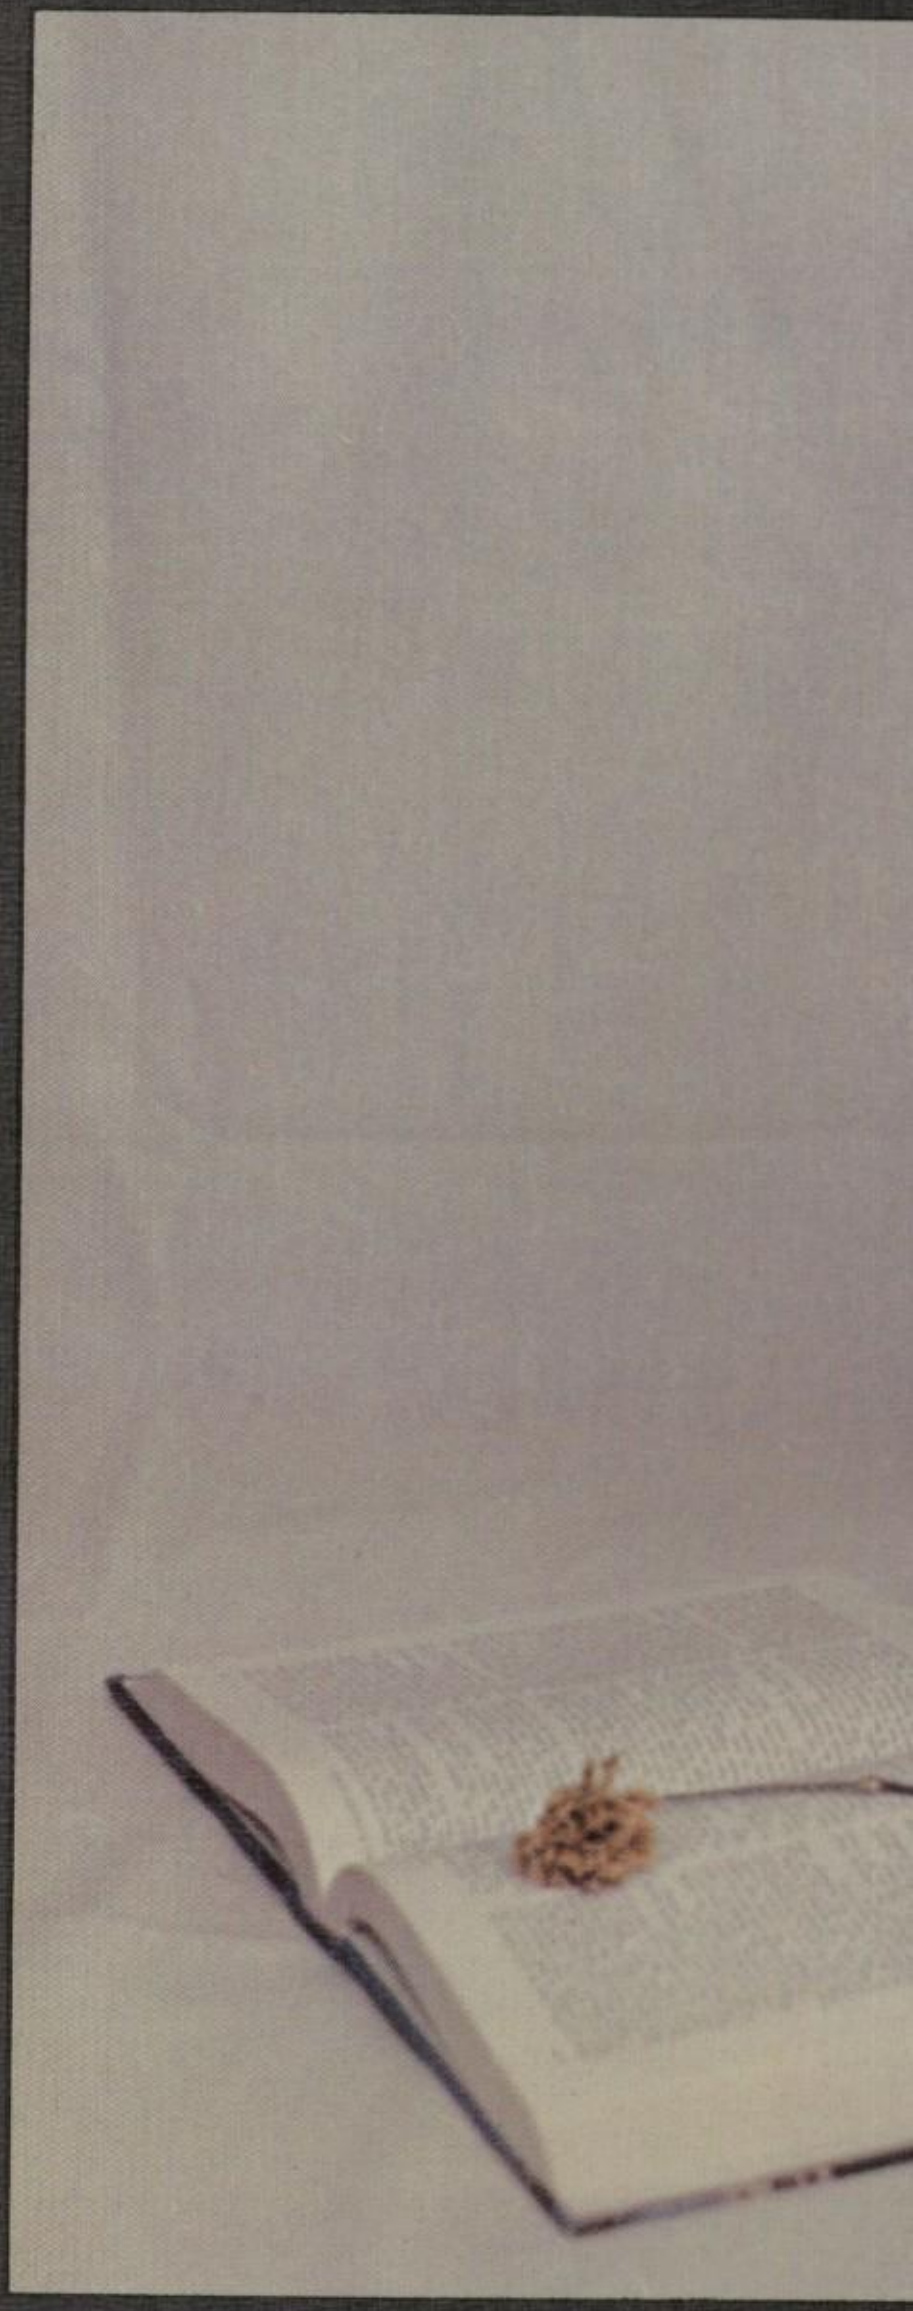
CAFETERIA OR OTHER
RESOURCE CENTERS



Time Is Of The Essence

Gads,
It's progress report time
Again
Which is more important?
That English assignment Or Listening to
The French tape
Oops!
Library doors are closed
Again
Life passes
Just as lightening fast
As those Four minute
Passing periods
We can't wait
For the next mod
After all we can't wait
On rainbows either
It's up to us to choose How we spend our Lifetime
Mod by mod
Before it
Wilts,
Dries,
and is Pressed
Into a book, Forever.

Not just "cookin' and sewin' "
But more
Much more
A beginning by candlelight
—installation of officers and FHAers from Owasso Trying to feed the fund
selling recycled stationery
stationery and again stationery Caring enough to get more than we gave from Tender Loving Care Nursery
And
maybe most important Preparing for homes
that will relate to tomorrow's world

Practice makes perfect
Well, almost
Try that cartwheel on the beam
Without falling off
Or maybe stretch a little more
To get down into that split
Work hard enough
And you'll make the Junior Olympics
All it takes is Co-ordination Determination
And a good sense of humor
When you goof.

Journalism

For the school paper staff
It was a year of Decision and confrontation
Perfecting new policies and style.
Underground or traditional?
Maybe "liberal traditional".
A christening-
"Ex Post Facto"
(We're always 'after the fact')
Rushing news to meet deadlines.
Fitting inches on each page.
Typing and re-typing stencils
Stapling pages,
Distribution.
First headaches and now-Apprehension.
To paraphrase Mr. Lincoln:
You can please some of the people
All of the time and
All the people some of the time
But you cannot please all the people
All of the time.
And that's the way it is.

Mrs. Janet Armstrong, Yearbook and Journalism Sponsor, prepares for a busy day.

Staff members are: Lee Brown, Ruthie Hunt, Karen Burba, Beri Eidson, Pat Polumbus, Suzanne Fromtling, Jon Keller, Ron Eaton, Lyon Holtz, Steve Marrs.

Chorus Does It All

They show their enthusiasm
Sounds.....soprano, bass, tenor,
Harmony, rhythm, expression,
Different voices singing,
Coming together,
Telling us of themselves,
Of others, of our country.
School involvement.....
Contests to win,
Trips to make,
Assemblies to perform at,
Citrus fruit to sell,
School spirit, school pride.
Their instructor, Mrs. Erbert,
She does her very best.
With music in the air
You hear their singing.....
They did succeed!
Chorus seventy-two seventy-three

. . . . . To Find Friends

Senior Class

A Senior—
It was about time we were on top.
But
Did you know the circumference of your head?
Count all the relatives?
Order: pins, gowns, caps,
pictures,
announcements,
etc.?
"It really costs a fortune to be a Senior."
Include the Senior Prom
at the Sheraton Skyline Inn
and Commencement at Mabee Center.
Anticipate the pressure of deciding the rest of your life?
We've stood waiting in the middle for one year.
Future vs. The Past 12 Years
What we do with the outcome is always up to us.

Sr. officers: Pres.—Tracy Hendricks, V. Pres.—Bob Ethington, Sec.—Terrie Beeson.

Senior Board members: Karen Burba, Tracy Hendricks, Cindy Walker, Terrie Beeson, Kathy Kimery, Bobby Simpson, Dianne Hembree, Cynthia Woolever, Steve Torres, Vicki Stevens, Ruthie Hunt, Bill Boyer, Julie Sturdevant, Phil Lankford, Becky Wyatt, Pam Adams, Teri Bewley, Dee Dee Dodd, Debbie Hurry. Football coaches are, left to right, Tim Hendricks, Doyle Taylor, Bob Smith, Rod Goodsell, Larry Smith, and Ron Bloom.

Bud King stands on the sidelines, hoping to play.

Football

It began early in August
Six days a week, twice a day
It's shorts and shirts at first
Then we don our pads and go to war
Tackle drills, blocking drills
Learning new plays and defenses
Salt pills to prevent heat exhaustion
Practising specialty teams
Windsprints, agility drills and then Running, running, and more running
And when we're in our best shape
We have one last scrimmage
Then the season arrives
First the all-city
Winning the consolation finals
Then the first game of the season
Learning their weak and strong points
Putting in new plays and defenses
New one for each team we play
Then work them out on the field
Three days in full pads
Polishing our plays before each game
We play them all: Edison, Hale
Washington, Central, Enid, Memorial,
And on even terms. The result?
Third in the conference
Eighth in the state

Front Left to Right Les Foster, Walter Johnson, Bill Bridges, Ricky Tremble, Walter Moore, Kevin Abner, Jim Green, Steve Grant, Bob Smith, Brent Somoz. Front row, left to right: Mike Coonts, Don Perry, Rick Demeray, Gary Steinberg, Mike Ethington, Duane Myers, Todd Funk, Mark Phillips, and Jon Dees, Mermen of the 1973 Cardinal swim team.

Mike Ethington prepares for a back sumersault.

Mark Phillips positions himself for the starting gun.

Swimming

The nickname is "Mermen."
Practice starts in fall
Though many swim year round
Lap after lap for conditioning
Hours every day; no vacations
Butterfly, back, breast, and freestyle
Different strokes for different folks
60 and 100 yard sprints
Medley and freestyle relays
Long 200 and 400 yard endurance races
In the middle of it all, the dives
The divers practice endless hours
Front flips, cutaways, and back dives
Each has a degree of difficulty
But in the end it's points that win Relay wins get 7, for others first gets 5, second 3, and third 1.

Senior David Klass rests by the poolside after a race.

Wrestling

Wrestling
It's an individual sport
Which begins in the fall
It takes much time, effort, and dedication to be a wrestler
The workouts are long and often lasting past six o'clock
They work in a very hot and humid room and sweat up a storm
They practice dozens of moves Takedowns, escapes, reverses
rides, and pinholds
They repeat these moves over and over until they come naturally
They work these throughout the season Finally in late February comes the regional tournament
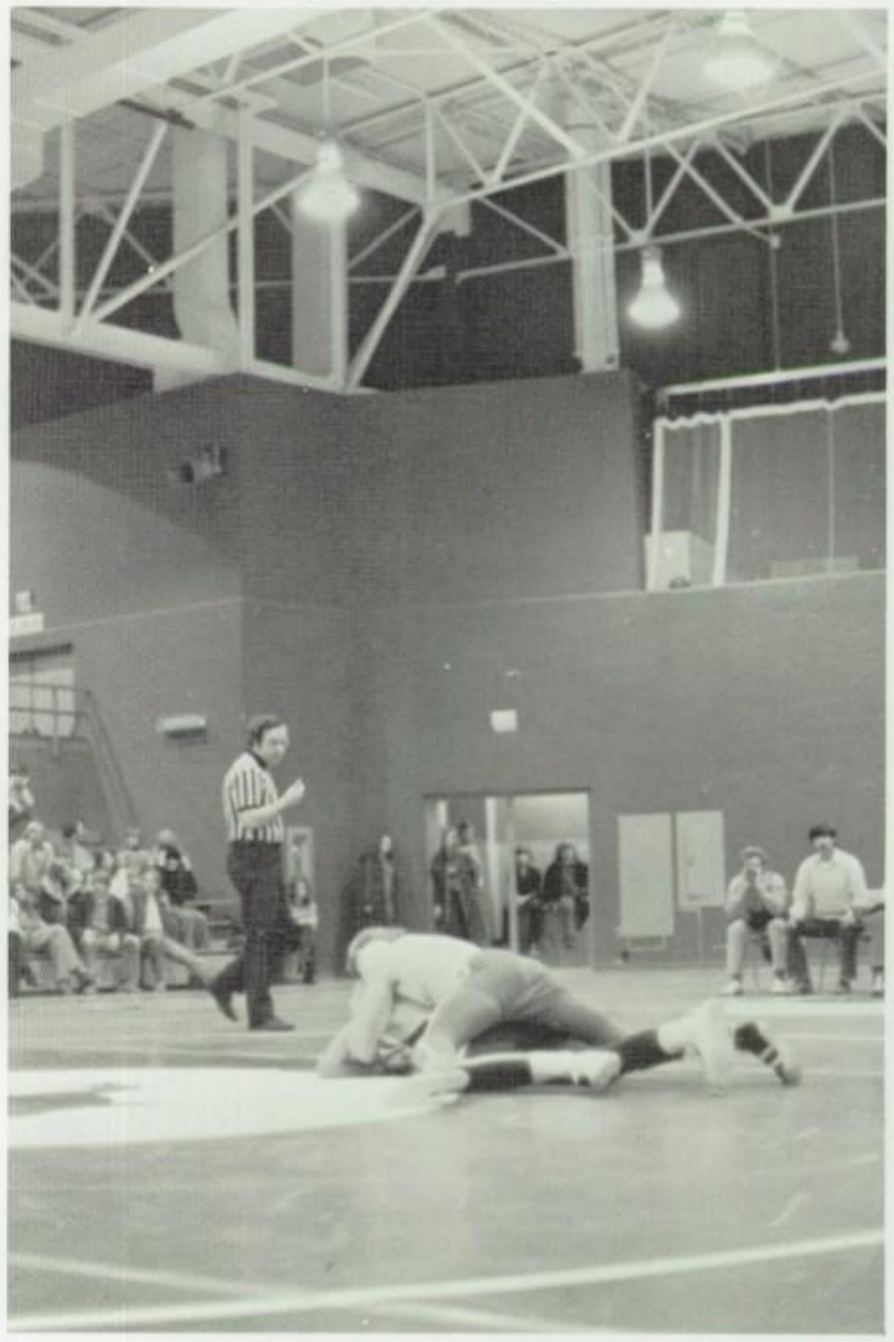
Where, if they place at least fourth
They go to state
There the question is settled
Who is Number One!



East Central wrestler fights to get on top.

Rick Atkinson demonstrates a hiplock hold on R. K. Arnold.

Randy Hendricks clears another mark for E. C.

James Ledbetter hurdles over opponents.

Cross Country

Hours spent running on our own day in, day out
Summer, winter, spring, or fall
Lungs bursting
Sides splitting and legs cramping
Running around the school in the streets,
or on the road.
Dual meets and Invitationals
Makes no difference; we just keep on joggin'.

Cross Country runners are kneeling: Ron Morris; Dennis Larsen; and Mike Becklerman. Standing: Coach Clark; James Thomas; Brian Coffman and Donald Heath.

Doug Roundtree is aiming carefully to make sure he does not miss this vital putt.

Greg Vowell takes his turn on a green at Mohawk Park.

Golf

The thrill of a birdie, eagles,
Hole in 1, par 3,
Agony of a bogey, double bogey, triple bogey,
Sandtraps, water hazards, teeing off,
Balls lost in the rough Iron, woods, putter, wedges,
Different clubs for different shots.
Long hours of walking,
Hitting long shots on the driving range,
Slice and hook shots,
Divots on the green,
Putting practice.

Greg Vowell tries to get out of a sand trap.

Tennis

Backhands, tennis elbows, sore legs, hours of lobbing, strained muscles,
waiting your turn at the courts.
Scores like 15-love, sets, aces, doubles matches, practicing on your own on Saturdays,
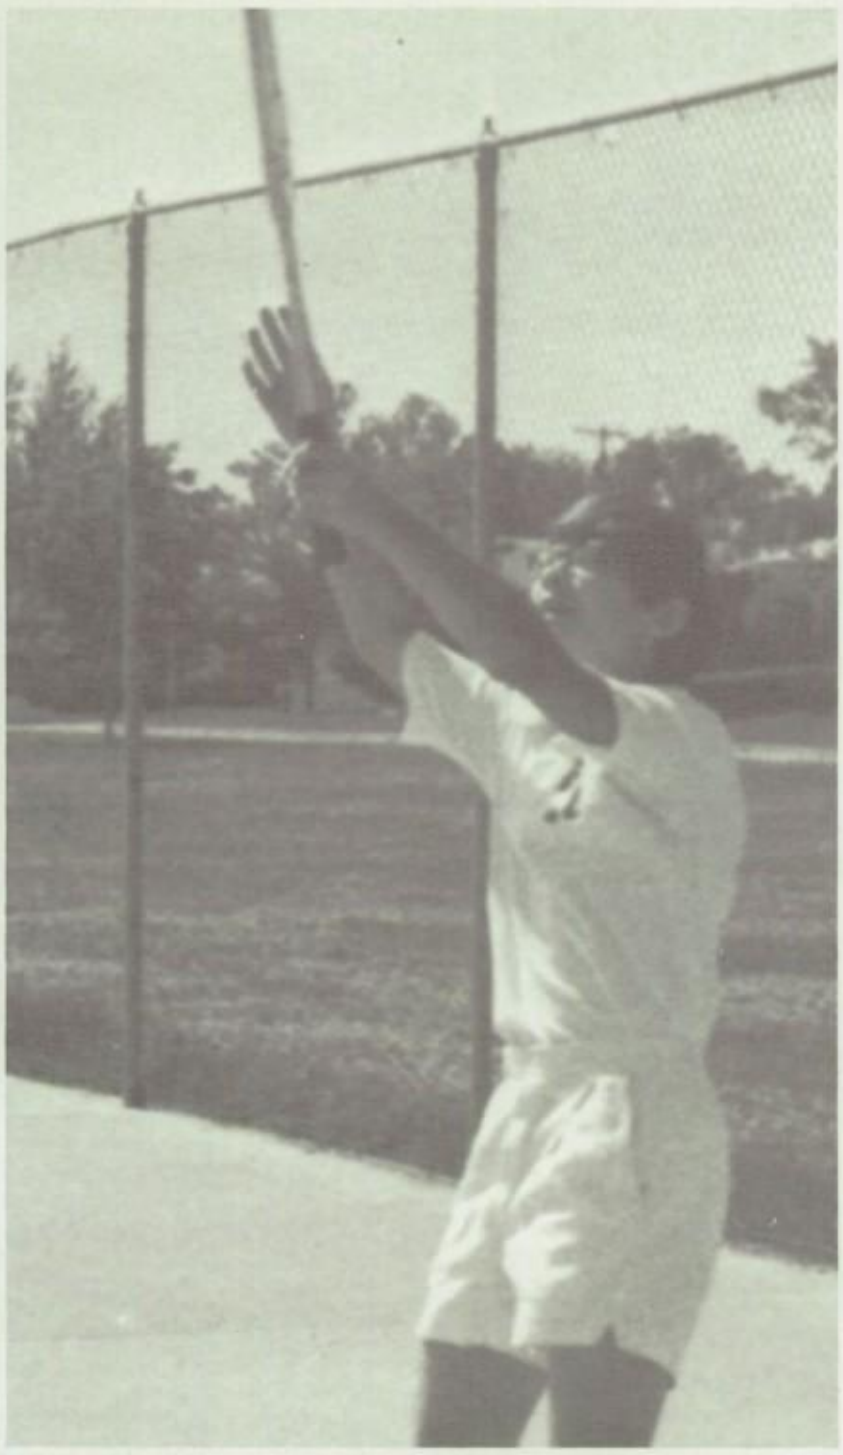
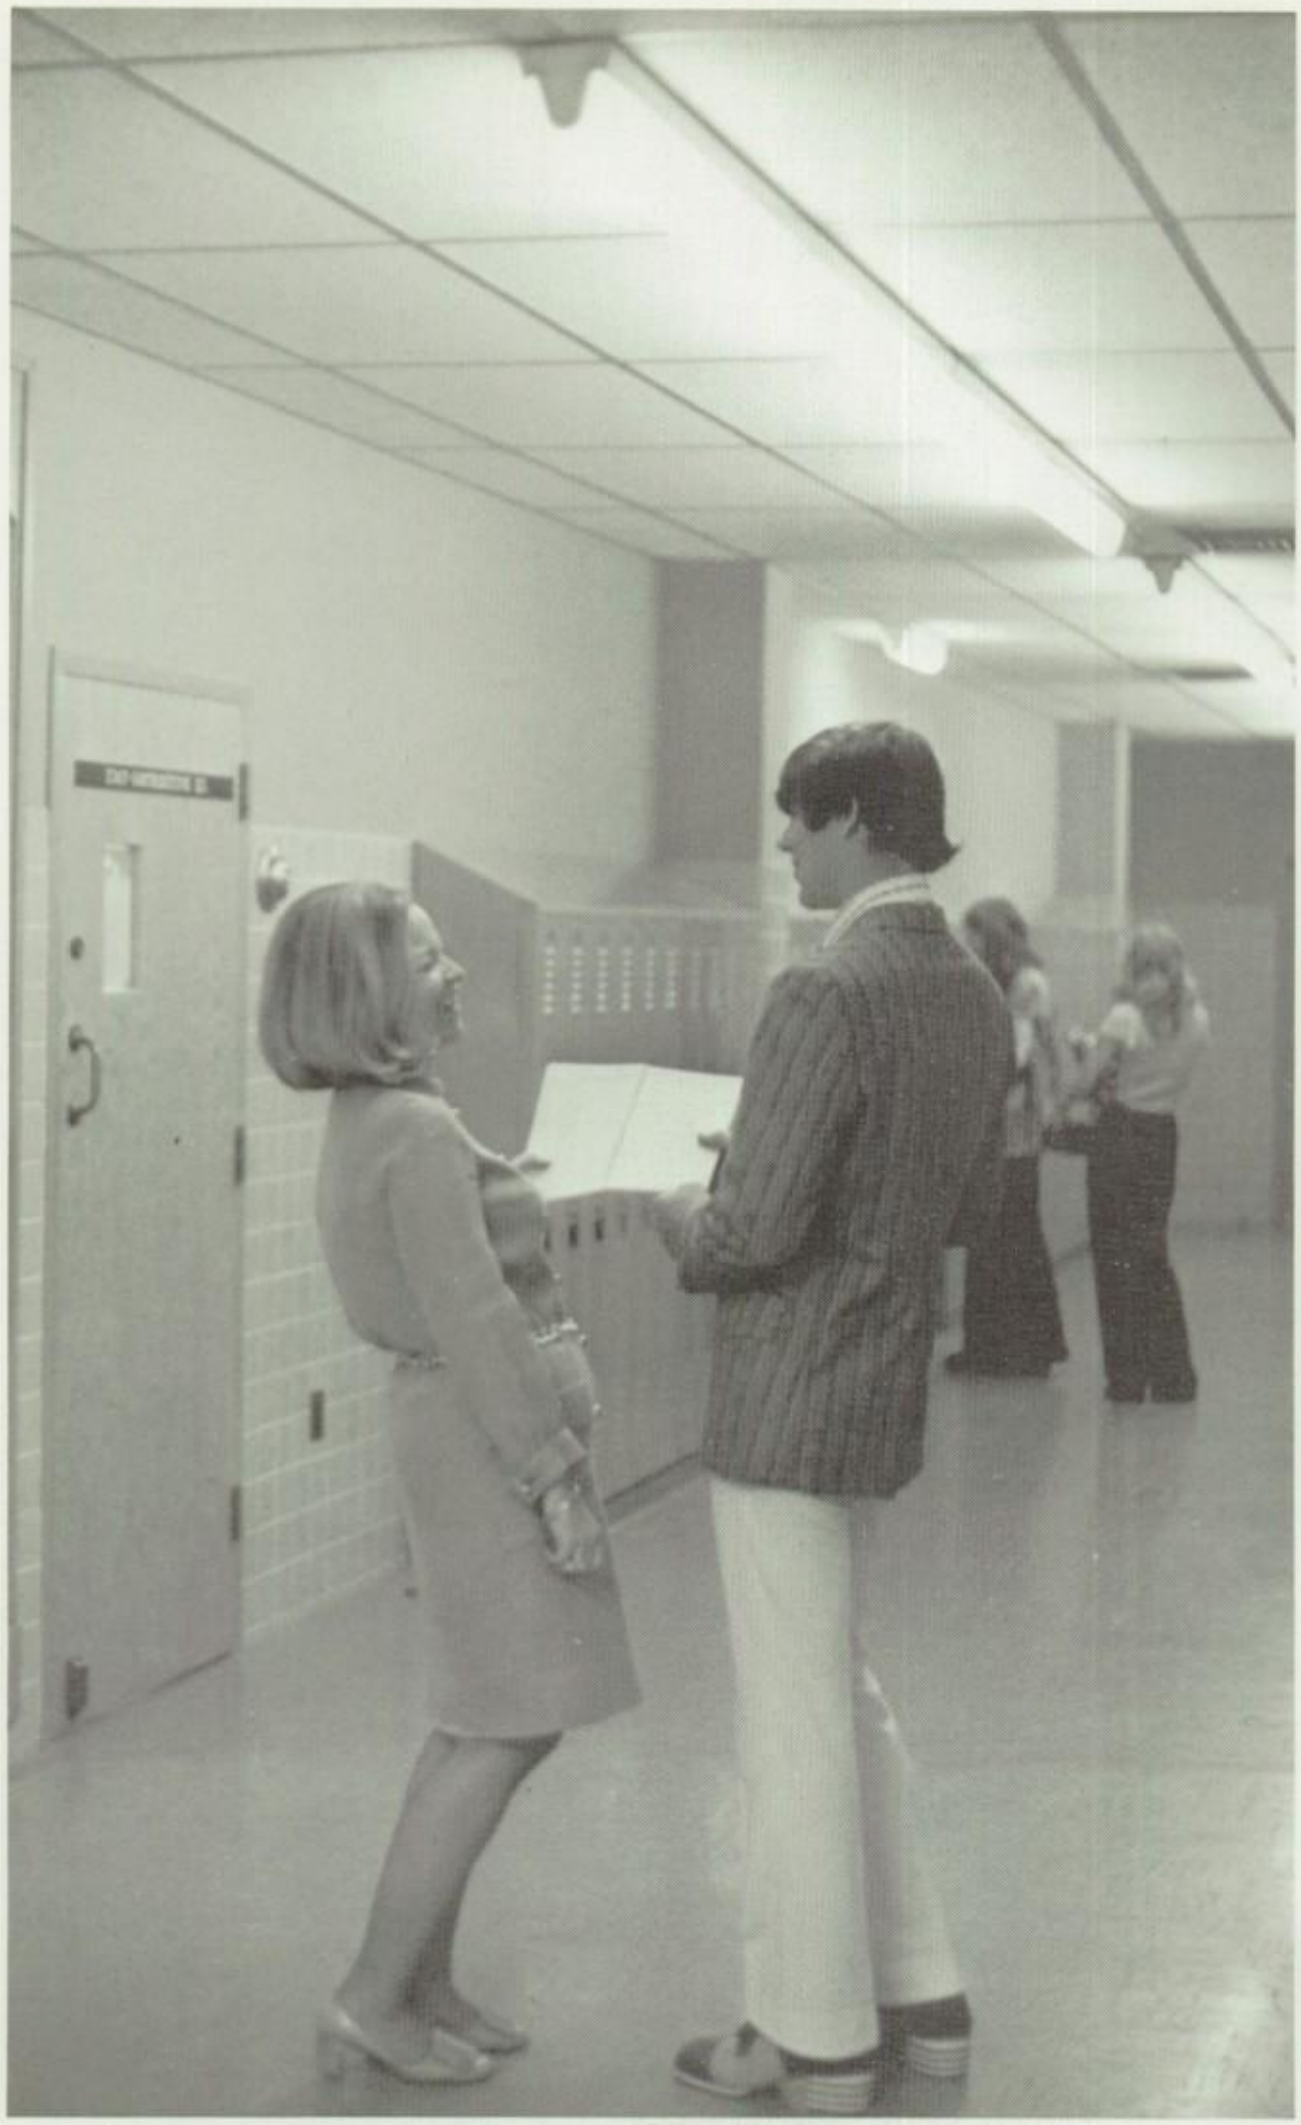
usually from noon to sundown.
Running about during matches,
chasing for those barely hitting over the net,
backpeddling for those over your head.
Clay courts, grass courts, cement courts,
Keep on truckin' — maybe we'll win this year.

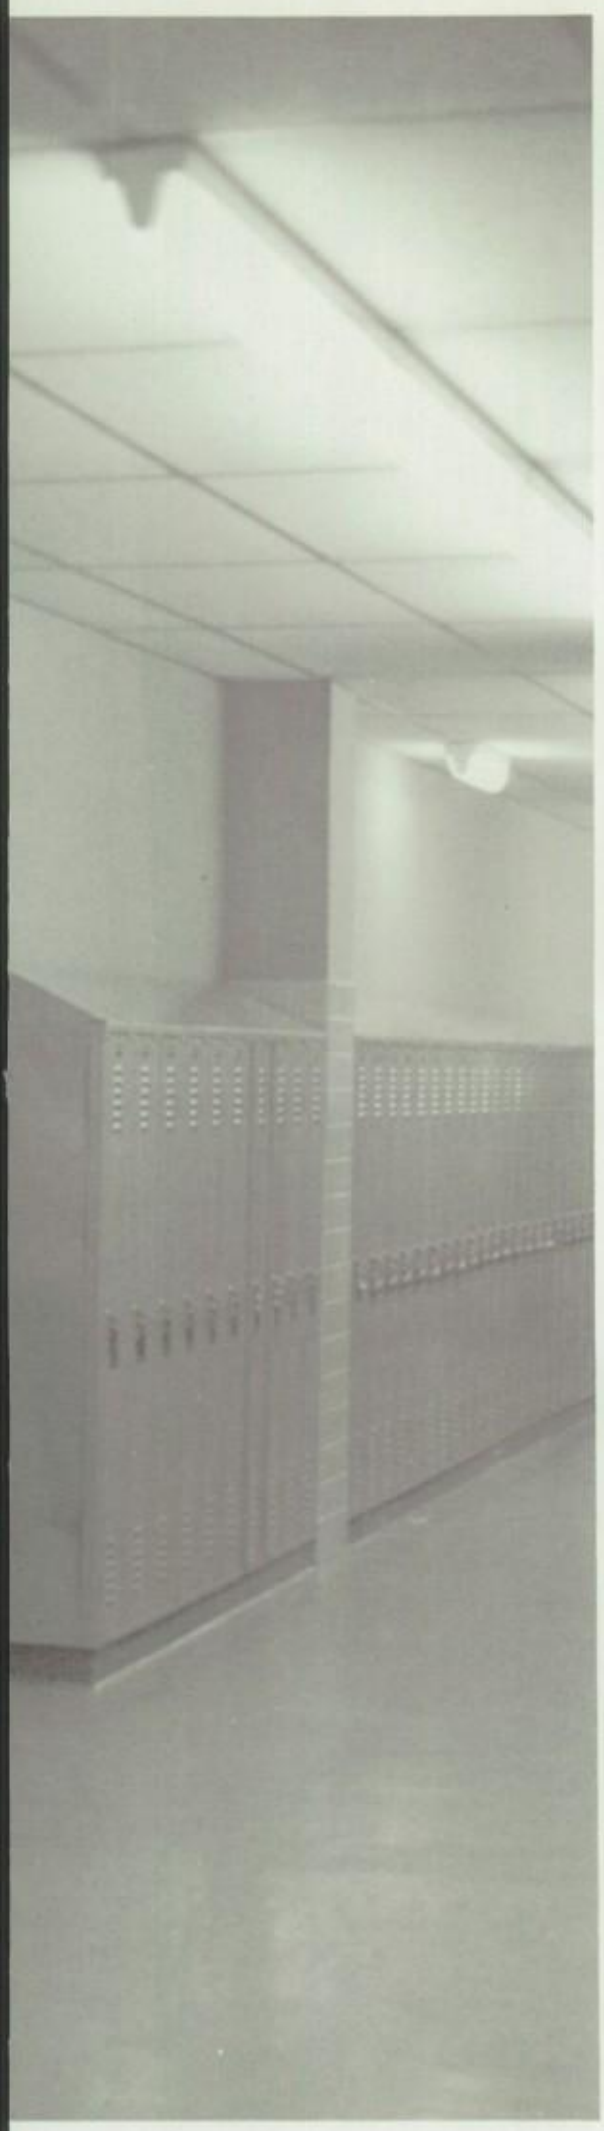


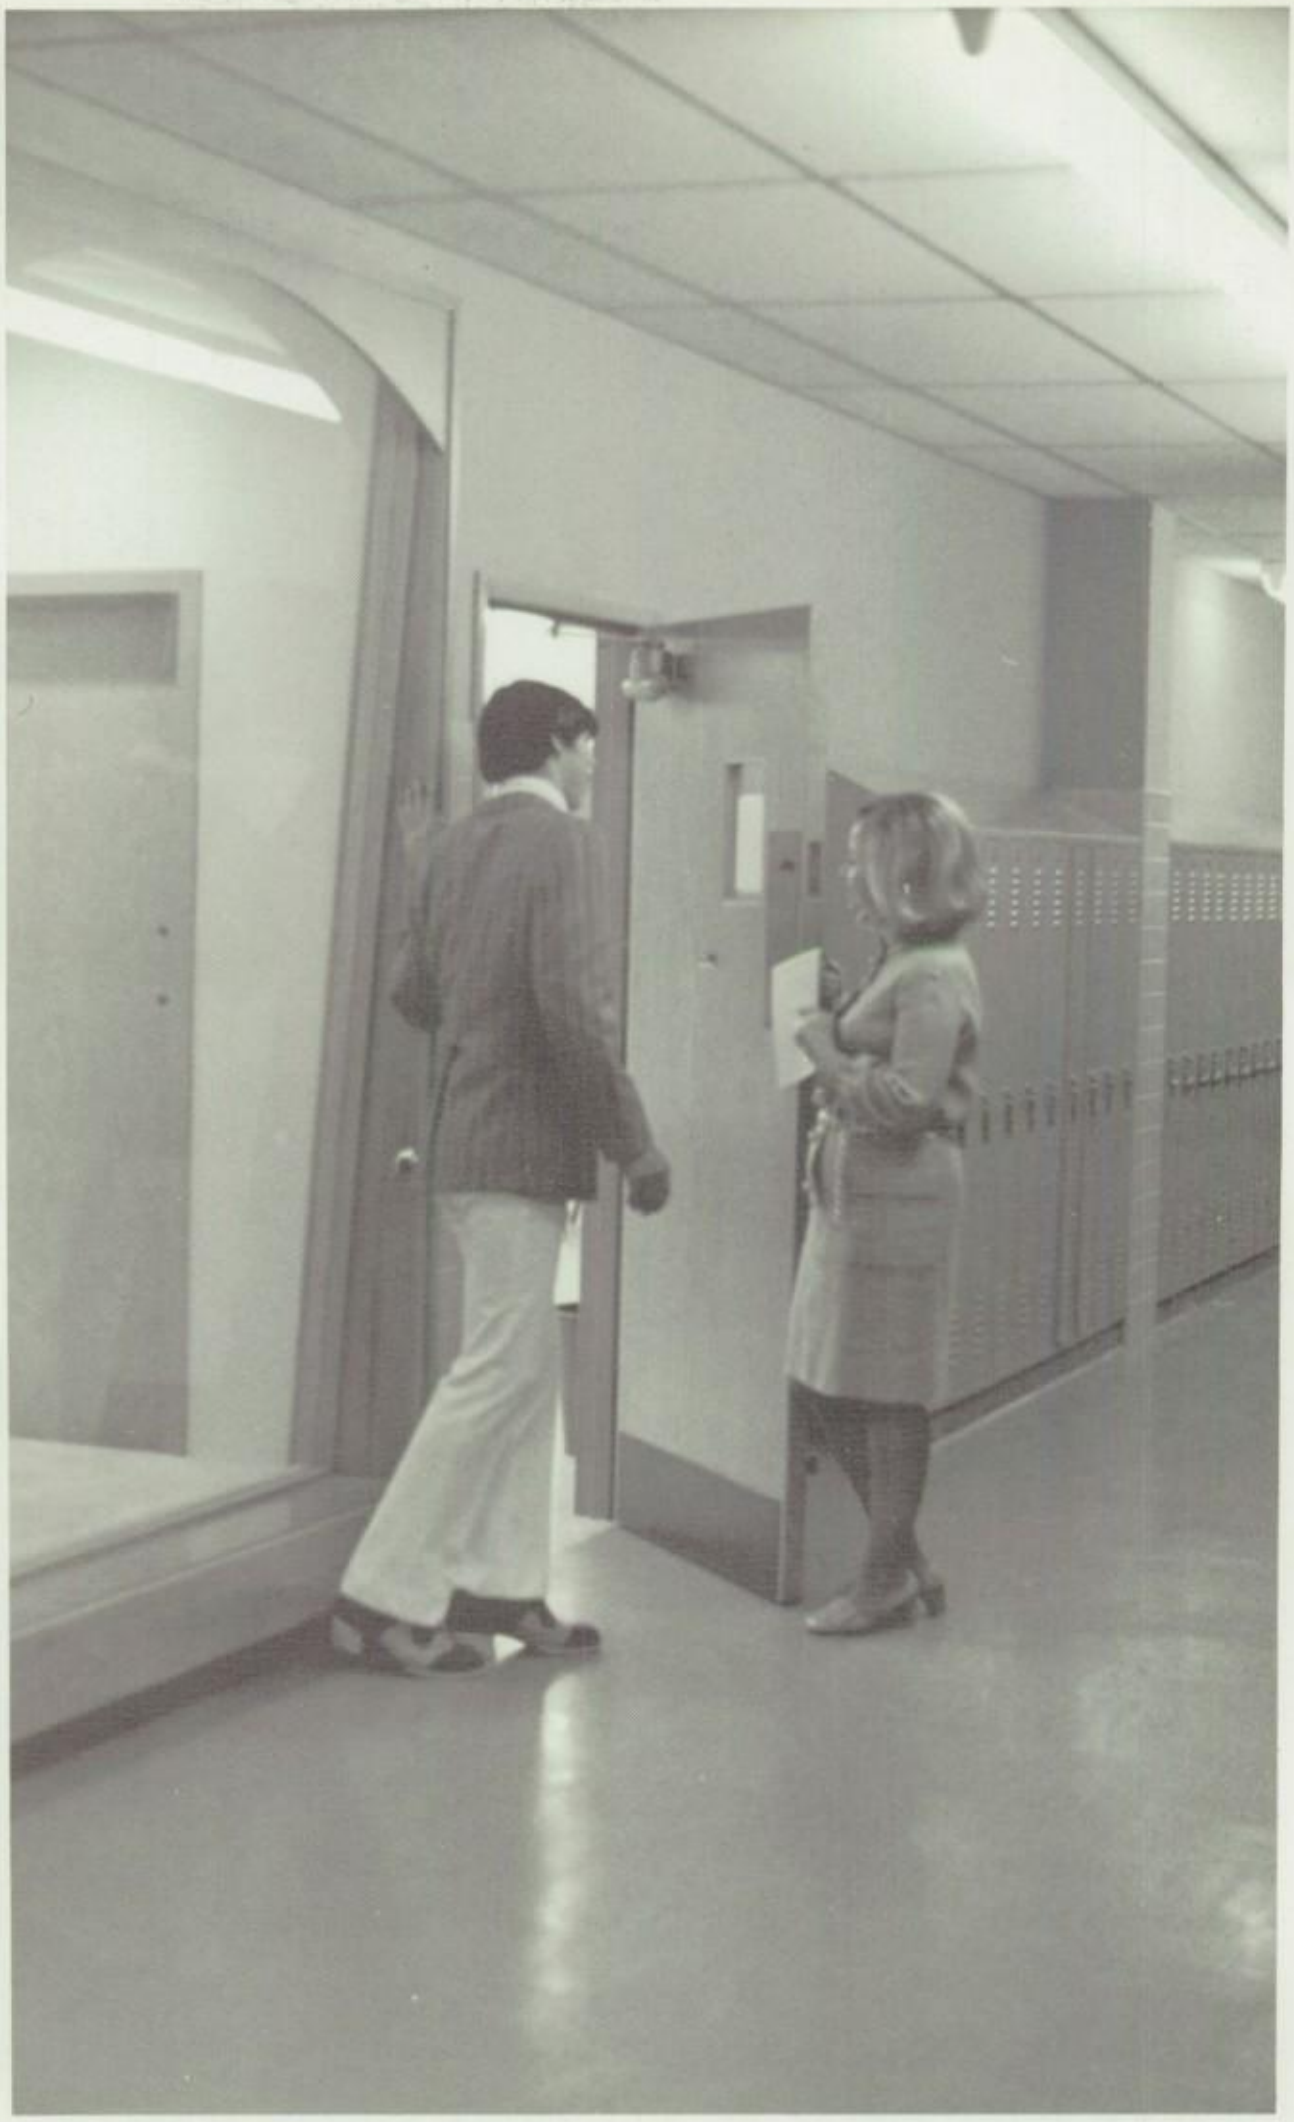
Gary Hendrickson practices for a powerful serve.

Randy Dirrim, Mike O'Kelly, Tim Kunze, and Gary Hendrickson meet at midcourt to wish each other luck.

Tennis players Gary, Mike, Randy, and Tim show enthusiasm by jumping the net after a win.







To Learn From Others

Dr. Gordon Cawelti
Superintendent

Board of Education members are: Mrs. Opal Carllson, Mr. Carl Hall, Jr., Mr. Eugene Harris, Mr. Curtis Turner, Mr. Robert Riggs, Jr., President, Mr. Robert Beck, Mr. Ray Conard, Vice-President, Mr. Robert Beckstrom, and Mrs. Richard Warner.

Board Of Education

A seven man board from seven wards in Tulsa has a lot of decisions to make.
New curriculum, new building,
Charles Mason High to open next September.
Dr. Gordon Cawelti, Superintendent, makes policy recommendations,
authorizing school budgets,
proposing bond issues,
approving such interesting items to students as the purchase of air conditioners and malted milk vending machines.
From determining school integration policies to handing out diplomas at graduation,
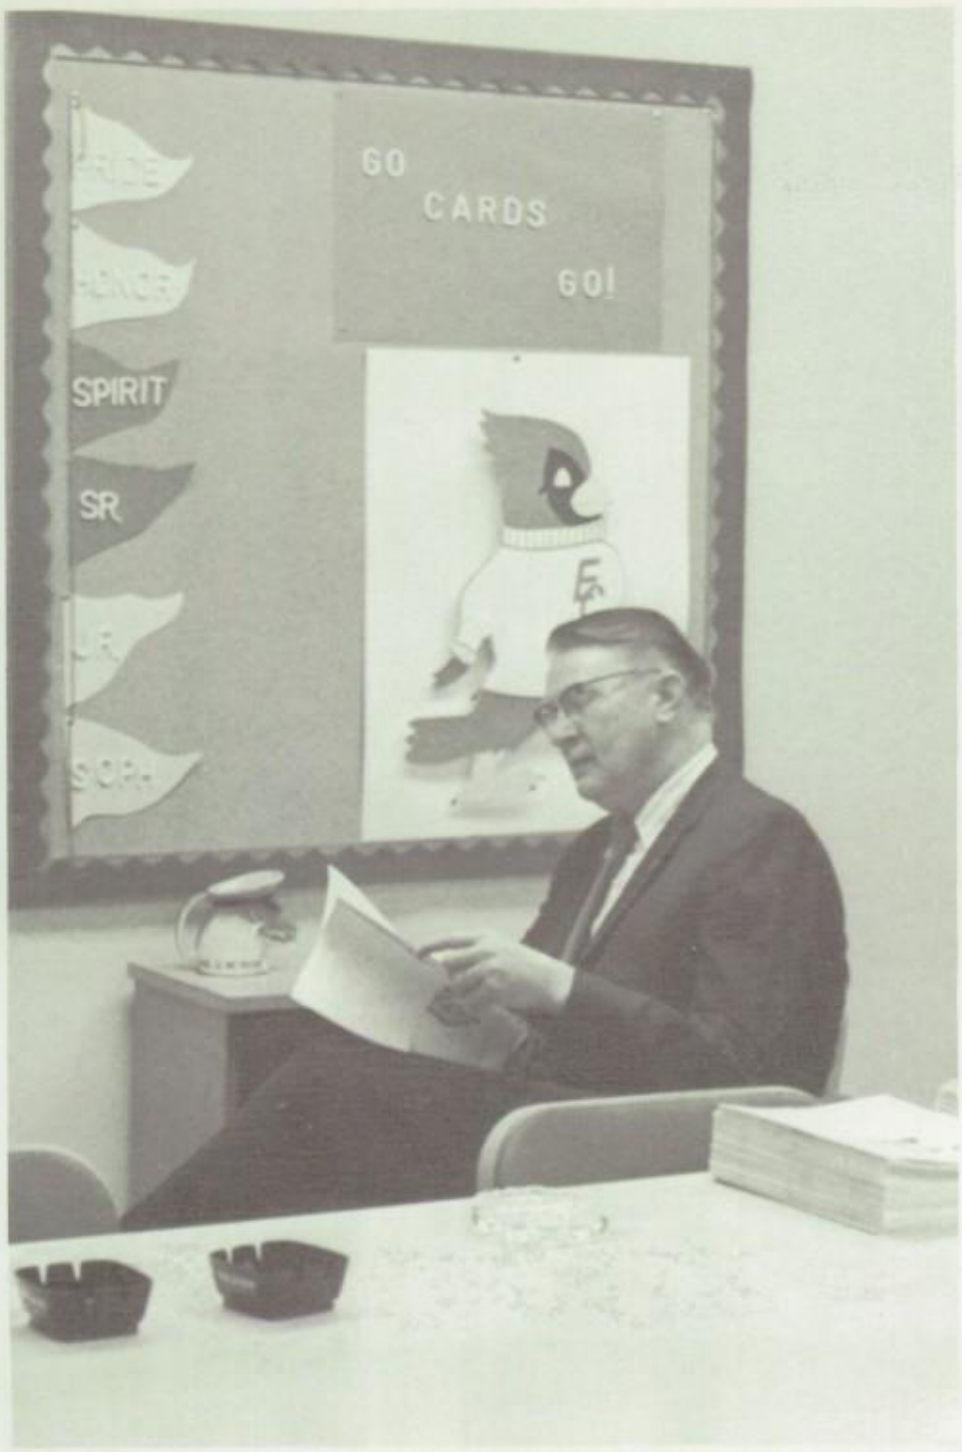
the Board members serve the youth of Tulsa.



Principal J. W. Payne, in one of his few moments of relaxation, is shown browsing in the conference room.

Man On The Move

Seven in the morning comes pretty early.
And Mr. Payne is there to greet it,
walking the halls,
checking on students,
noting late arrivals — even teachers.
An 8:00 intercom announcement,
"Congratulations to the team.
Take time to let them know you appreciate their efforts."
A 9:00 rap session.
Yes, he did talk to teachers about
"ups" in the cafeteria line.
"Mr. Payne, will you come to the office please?"
Student conferences, parent conferences.
1:20: check at Enterprise for I.D. cards, then rehearse for the Miss East Central assembly.
He missed his noon Civitan meeting,
but he did drive a student to Vo-Tech.
The student missed his bus.
Athletic Club meeting at 7:30 tonight.
A typical day for Mr. J. W. Payne, East Central Principal for 18 years.

Discussing modular scheduling, Mr. Payne and Mr. Larry Smith, Assistant Principal, would probably agree "It's up to us," the theme of the yearbook.

Assistant Principals

Mr. Dorsch: "Keep in mind:
Conditions-time-student behavior-mastery level."
He conducted teacher conferences while arranging underclass pictures.
It worked out pretty well that day.
Classroom visitations,
another sick call,
a sub to bring in,
another telephone call.
Student conferences,
"Did you talk to your mother about this?"
Pre-enrollment to start in December,
all phases of relationships with teachers and curriculum.
Mr. Smith: juggles the school calendar of events.
When Student Council meeting conflicts with Senior Board,
"First one scheduled gets it."
Working out seating for assemblies:
Pharr-31 students, AE2, front.
Scheduling room usage,
field trips,
"We're in a tighter bind on busses."
Walking the halls,
looking for excess students who should be in a Resource Center.
Scheduling college representatives,
Quarterback Club and P.T.A.,
students and activities.

Assistant Principals Mr. George Dorsch and Mr. Larry Smith find pre-enrollment a time-consuming activity.

Shown in a characteristic pose, Mr. Dorsch works closely with parents and their students.

600 to 700 students each.
A telephone call, "This is John's mother."
Just any clue would help.
"Yes mam, how do you spell his last name?"
College testing: Otis, ACT, SAT.
Making all new folders for sophomores,
advising on scholarships,
but many won't bother to apply.
Soothing unhappy parents,
"I'll try to get her out of that class."
Talking to teachers about touchy situations,
vocational counseling,
"You show an aptitude for Electronics,
but study the Occupational Outlook Handbook and check with Oklahoma Employment Service."
Counselors stay busy.

Special Services

Three hours behind the wheel, 12 hours simulation,
first aid and temperature readings.
Helping to locate references,
interviews,

English

It's required.
Our Town and The Red Badge of Courage,
Stopping by the woods . . was it Frost?
Diagramming and dictionary units.
"Alas, poor Yorick . . .," Hamlet said he knew him well.
Mrs. O'Bar: "Extra credit if you watch Oedipus."
Studying the Bible as literature, two labs on a six day cycle.
Research paper - footnotes - thesis statement!
What to write on?
Packets and poetry, rhyme and meter,
"tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow . ."
Is that rhyme or just repetition?
Mrs. Garrett: "Oh my!"
That's English,
and the Universality of literature.

Mrs. Velma Brinson and a junior class started the school year with a study of grammar.

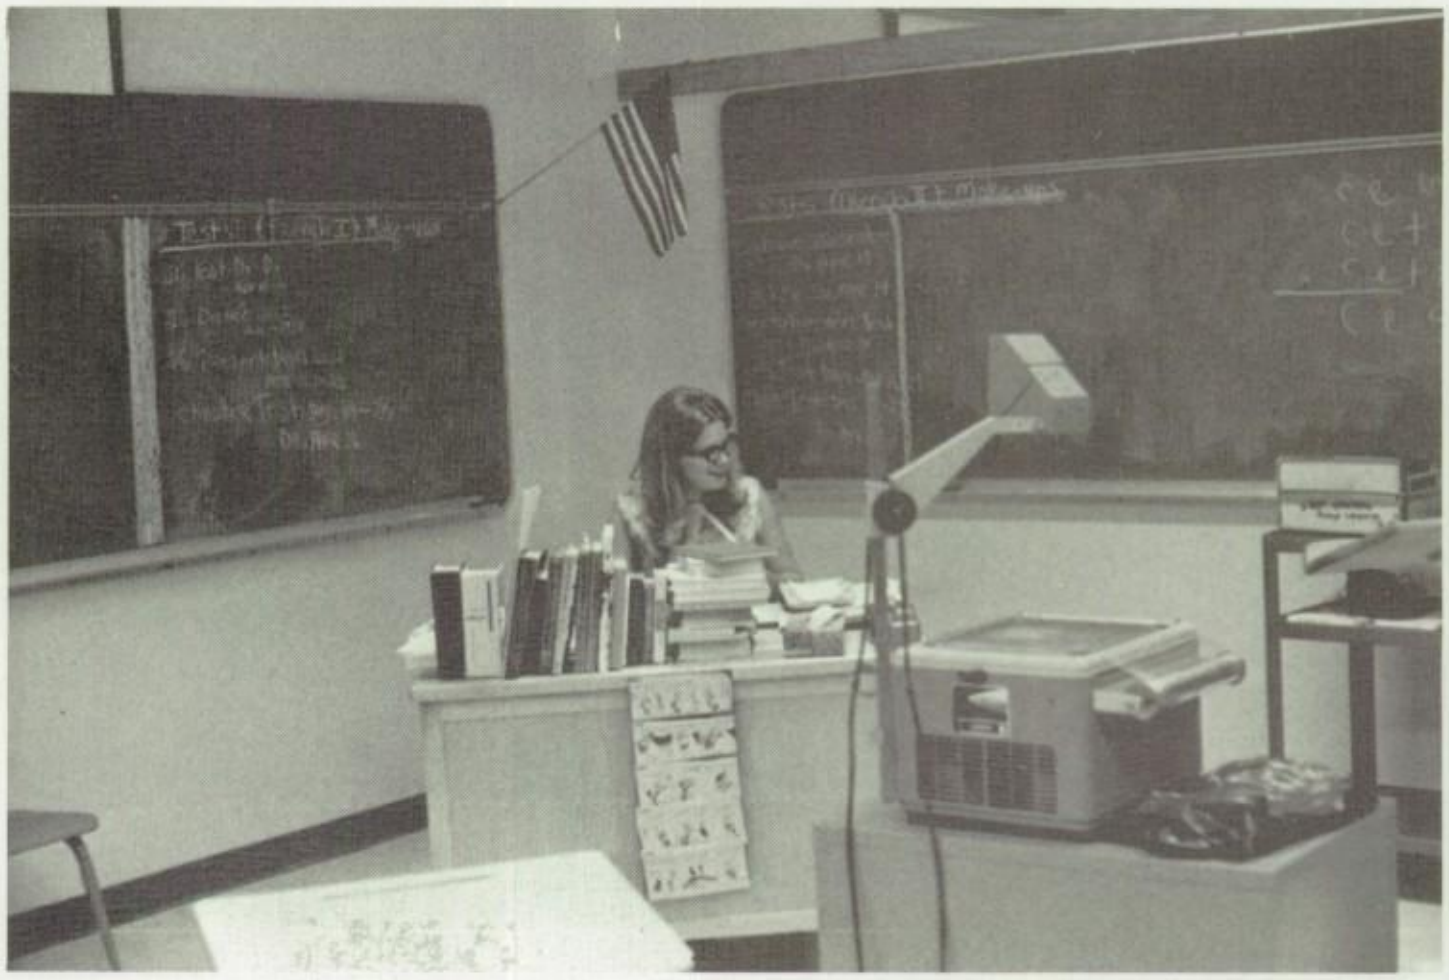
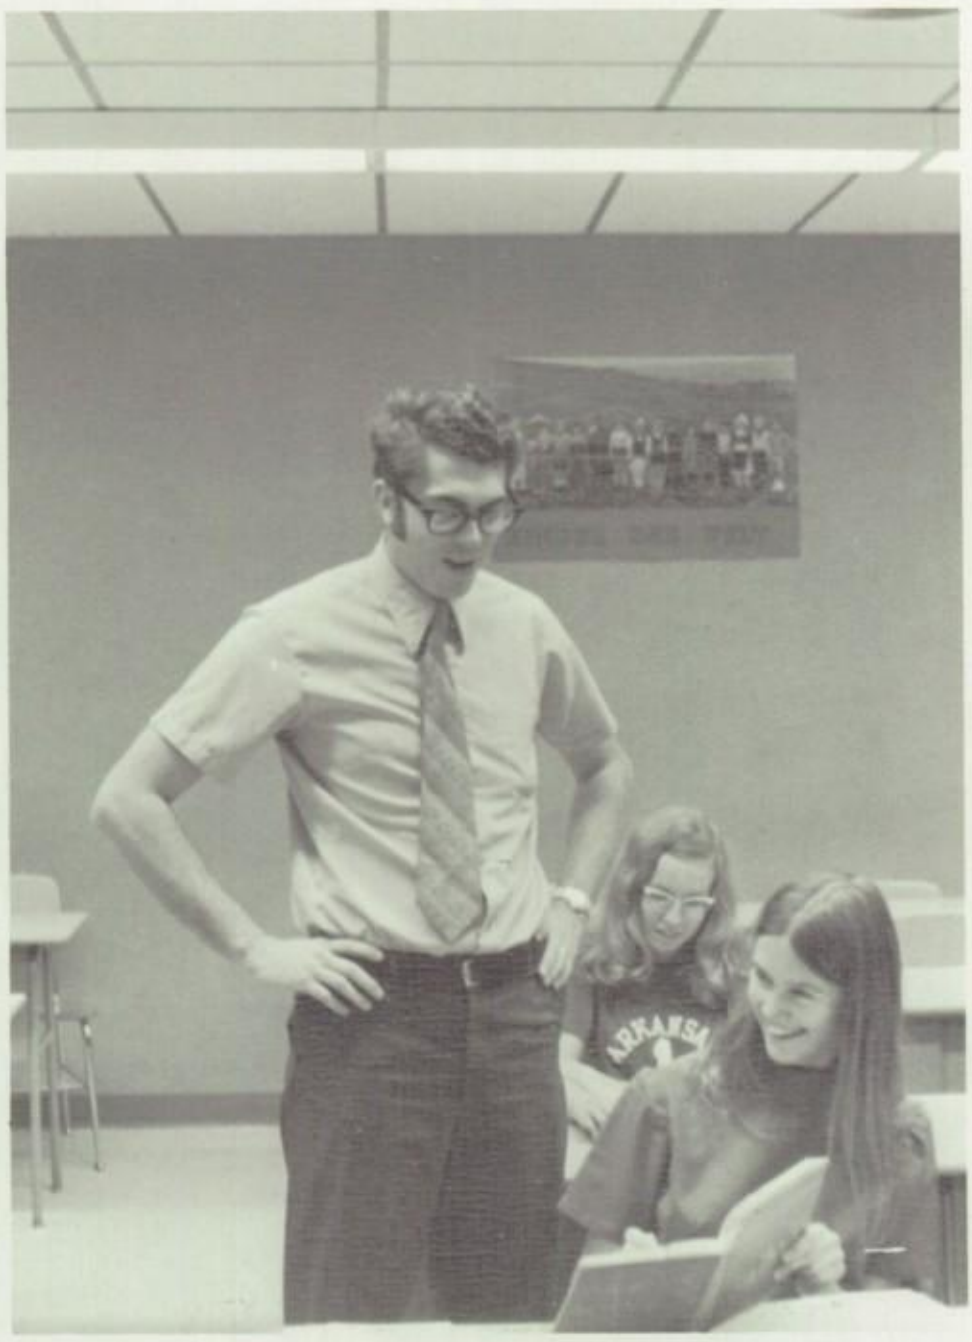
Suzanne Pharr
Florence Schupbach



Miss Suzanne Pharr, French teacher, believes that a study of foreign languages will help students think logically and develop a feeling for another way of life.



Mr. Schulte is convinced that Debbie Summers and Ann Hall can learn German, though it may take prodding.

Foreign Language

El dia de la roza,
Spanish for Columbus day,
studying Spanish culture.
Practice for an oral quiz,
How do you say red? - "rojo"
Conjugating verbs: tengo, tienes, tiene.
Mrs. Schupbach: "Repita clase."
French: Les Dijons vs. Les Parisiens, competing to learn numbers 1-30.
Miss Pharr: "Oui, repetez!"
Studying French geography, rivers and mountains, singing familiar Christmas carols.
In German: "Aller anfang ist schwer."
All beginnings are difficult, but English is a Germanic language.
Learning genders: "der, die, das," standard greetings: "Guten Tag, Guten Abend" Mr. Schulte: "Wiederholen Sie!"
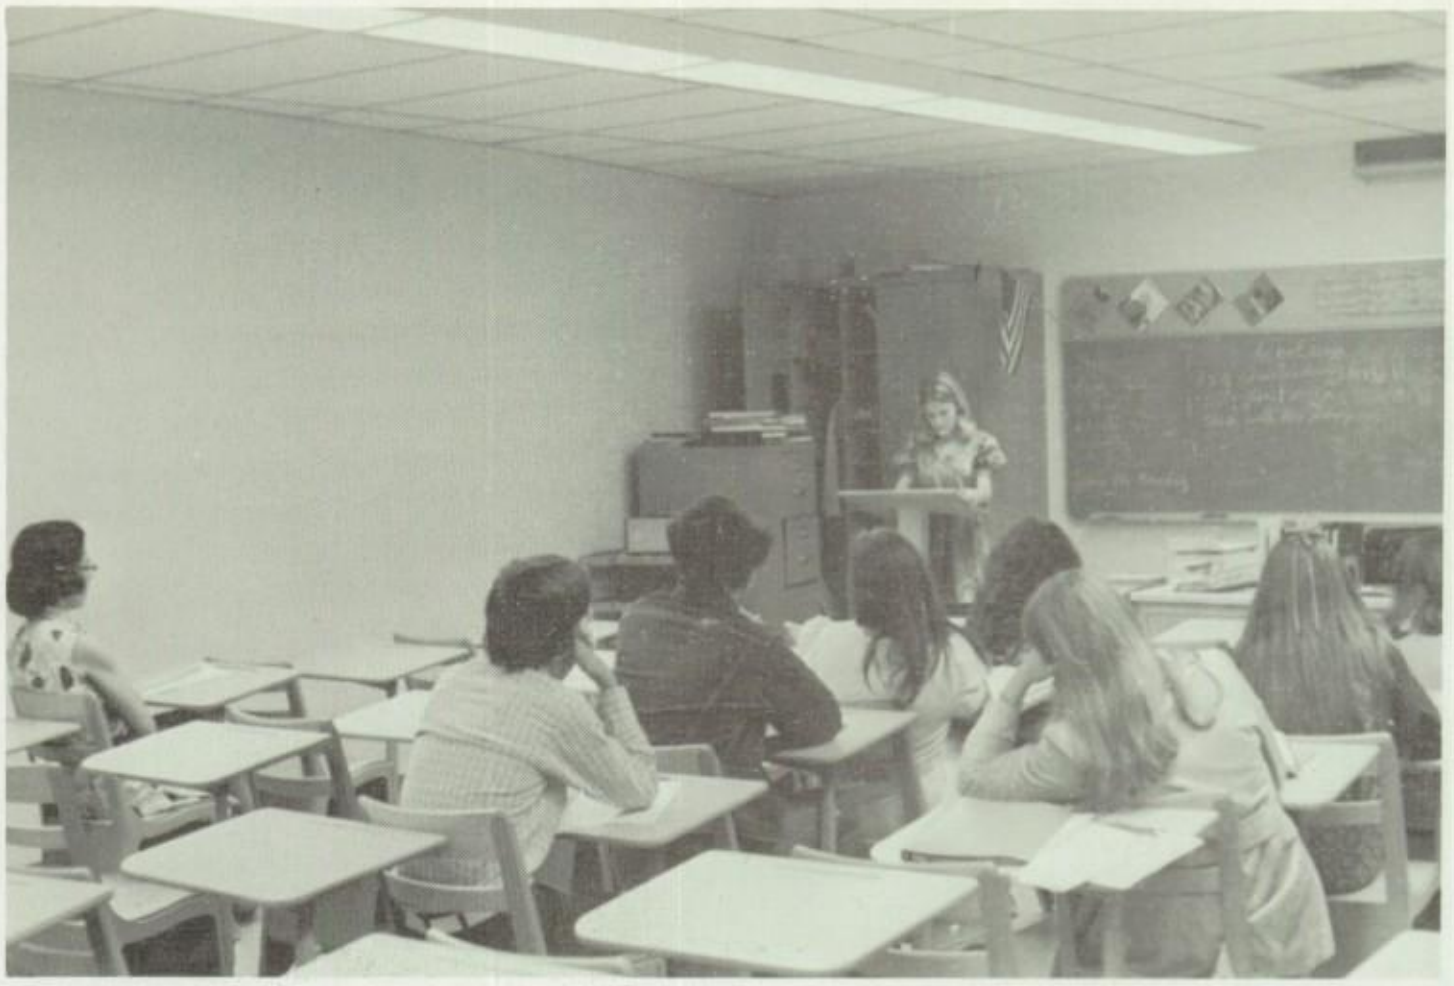
They always want us to repeat.



Oral reports have been of major importance in the Journalism class this year. Beri Eidson is reporting on action stories, emphasizing the colorful verbs.

Journalism

"I have six honest serving men
They taught me all I knew;
Their names are Where and What and When
And How and Why and Who" - Kipling.
Mrs. Armstrong either has a thing about Kipling, or those W's.
Leads: summary, cartridge, suspended interest . . .
News, editorials, and features.
Yearbook formula: one-half fun, one-half pressure.
Deadlines.
39 pages by November 13,
seems like school hasn't really started.
Wrap it up March 1st.
Three months before school is out?
"Take my picture"
"Don't take mine!"
Cardinal staffers get a lot of praise and all the criticism.

Yearbookers Cindy Woolever, Sandy Center, and Karen Burba are discussing Editorial Board policies.

Stagecraft students Karen Kelley and Jim Ziegler are shown working on props for the annual senior play.

Speech Arts

Learning to cope with stage fright, concentrate,
don't shuffle my feet or lean on the podium . . .
start with a three minute speech,
"A Friend."
Analyze characters,
an old lady, an old man
to Romeo and Juliet,
"A rose by any other name. . ."
Thanksgiving assembly,
The Reader's Theater,
poetry and dramatic readings.
Memorize - write play reports
A Streetcar Named Desire,
"List the production problems."
We may not become professionals, but Mr. Blair says we should strive for the same polish.

While Mr. Blair coaches from a prop book, Janelle Flanagan and Lee Brown don oriental costumes and pose in preparation for "Kabuki" and Oriental Theater presentations.

Lyn Dickerson

JoAnn Burnley
Lucy Spear

Shirley Dalton
Camille Wean

Home Economics

Underling, interfacing, button holes and zippers
gathering, basting, hemming, and all those steps between me
and a skirt or coat,
or shall I make a smock this time?
Mr. Wean: "right side to right side"
Translated, that means place the right sides of fabric together to make a seam.
Housing, and old American styles of architecture,
designing homes for today's living,
cool colors and warm colors
. . . personality and moods.
The menu on cooking day:
Skillet macaroni and beef, broccoli or green peas, Italian bread sticks, iced tea.
Why not hamburgers?
Mrs. Burnley says a balanced diet, meat, milk, cereals and bread, fruits and vegetables . . .
"Where is the ground beef?"
IN THE REFRIGERATOR!
Notebooks,
cooking is great except for the paperwork.

Mrs. Spear and Jean Martin discuss problems in pattern cutting and matching various prints.

Mrs. Wean and Karen Somers are shown making plans for the traditional PTA style show.

Tossed salads and blenders make a typical Home Economics kitchen scene.

Mrs. Burnley and Pam Adams discuss menu planning, a step which is vital to a balanced diet and a savings to the family food budget.

Don Randolph John Dial Gene Reedy Jimmie Johns Duane Selvey

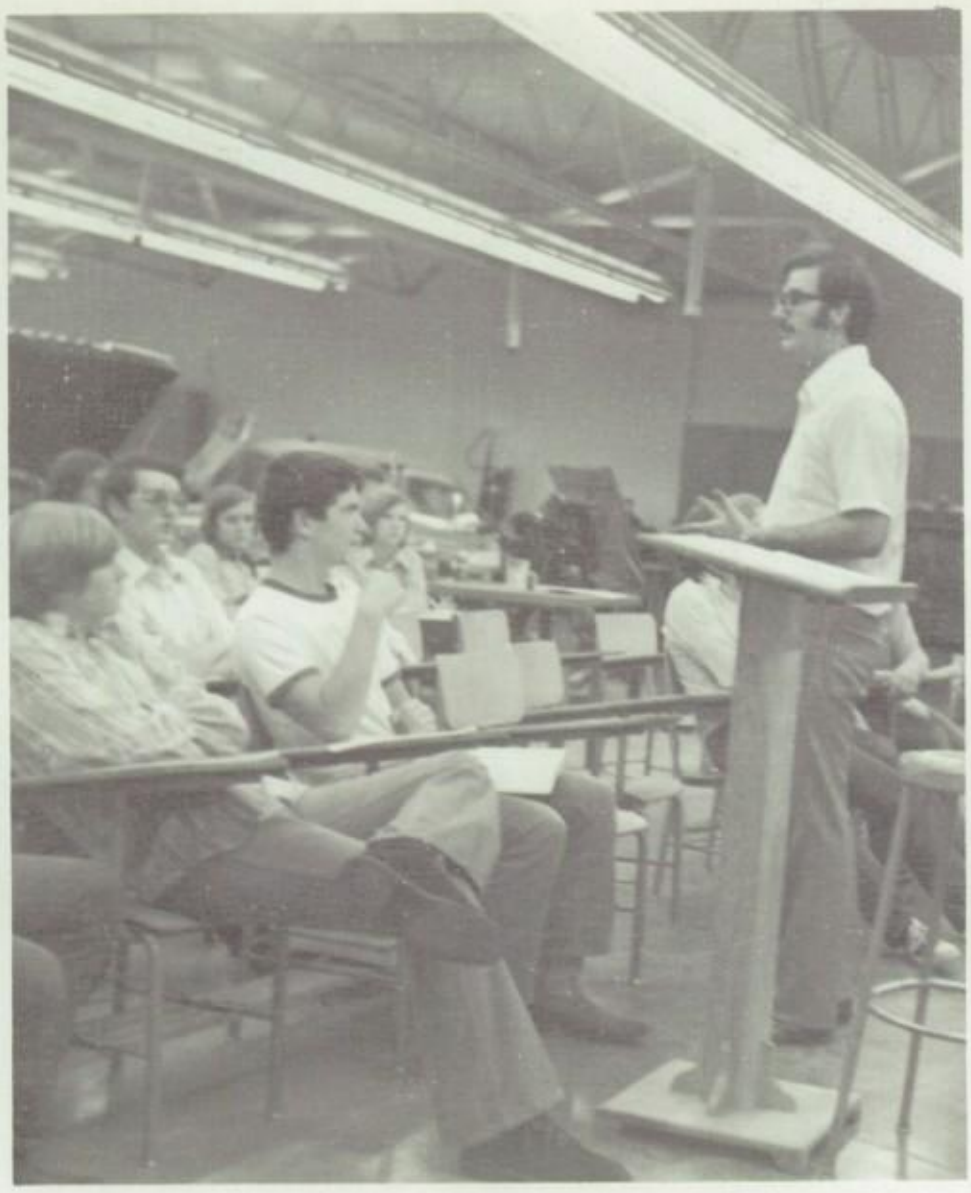
Mr. Don Randolph, drafting instructor, believes that job exploration is a critical phase of any high school.

Mr. Reedy and Sam Hart are repairing a transistor radio, one of the several projects in Electronics.



Nothing is more important than shop safety emphasizes Mr. John Dial to his Power Mechanics 1 Class.

Industrial Arts

Open shops,
machines grinding,
Mr. Selvey: "Get your goggles on."
Textbooks, Machine Tool Metal Working
"Oh no, not more theory."
Replacing transmissions, relining brakes,
tune-ups, points and plugs,
setting ignition timing,
Mr. Dial: "Drive 'em in and push 'em out."
Kidding, of course.
Hand planing checker boards,
sanding lamps on the lathe, right on !
Lettering, designing houses,
center line-hidden line-fold line-dimension line-Electronics: soldering wires, dismantling TV's.
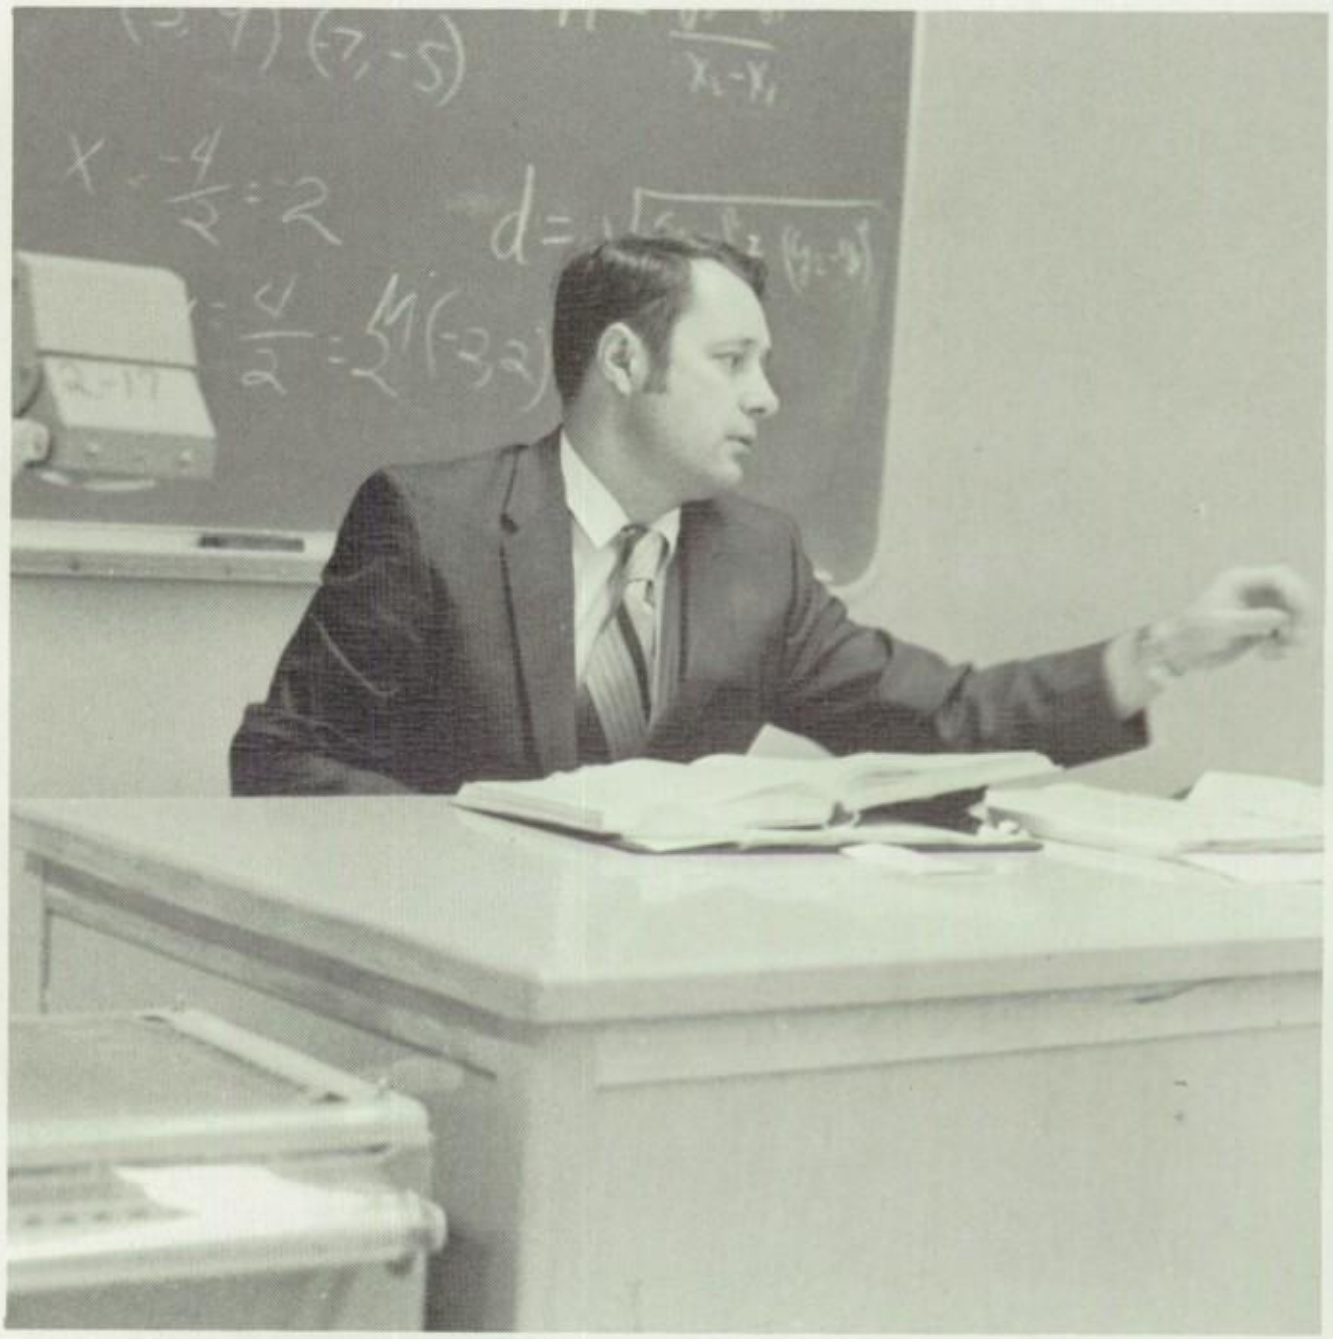
"I hope Captain Electrode approves."
Job exploration is part of Industrial Arts.

Mr. Duane Selvey observes Machine Shop students David Todd, Robert Beard and Mark Converse.

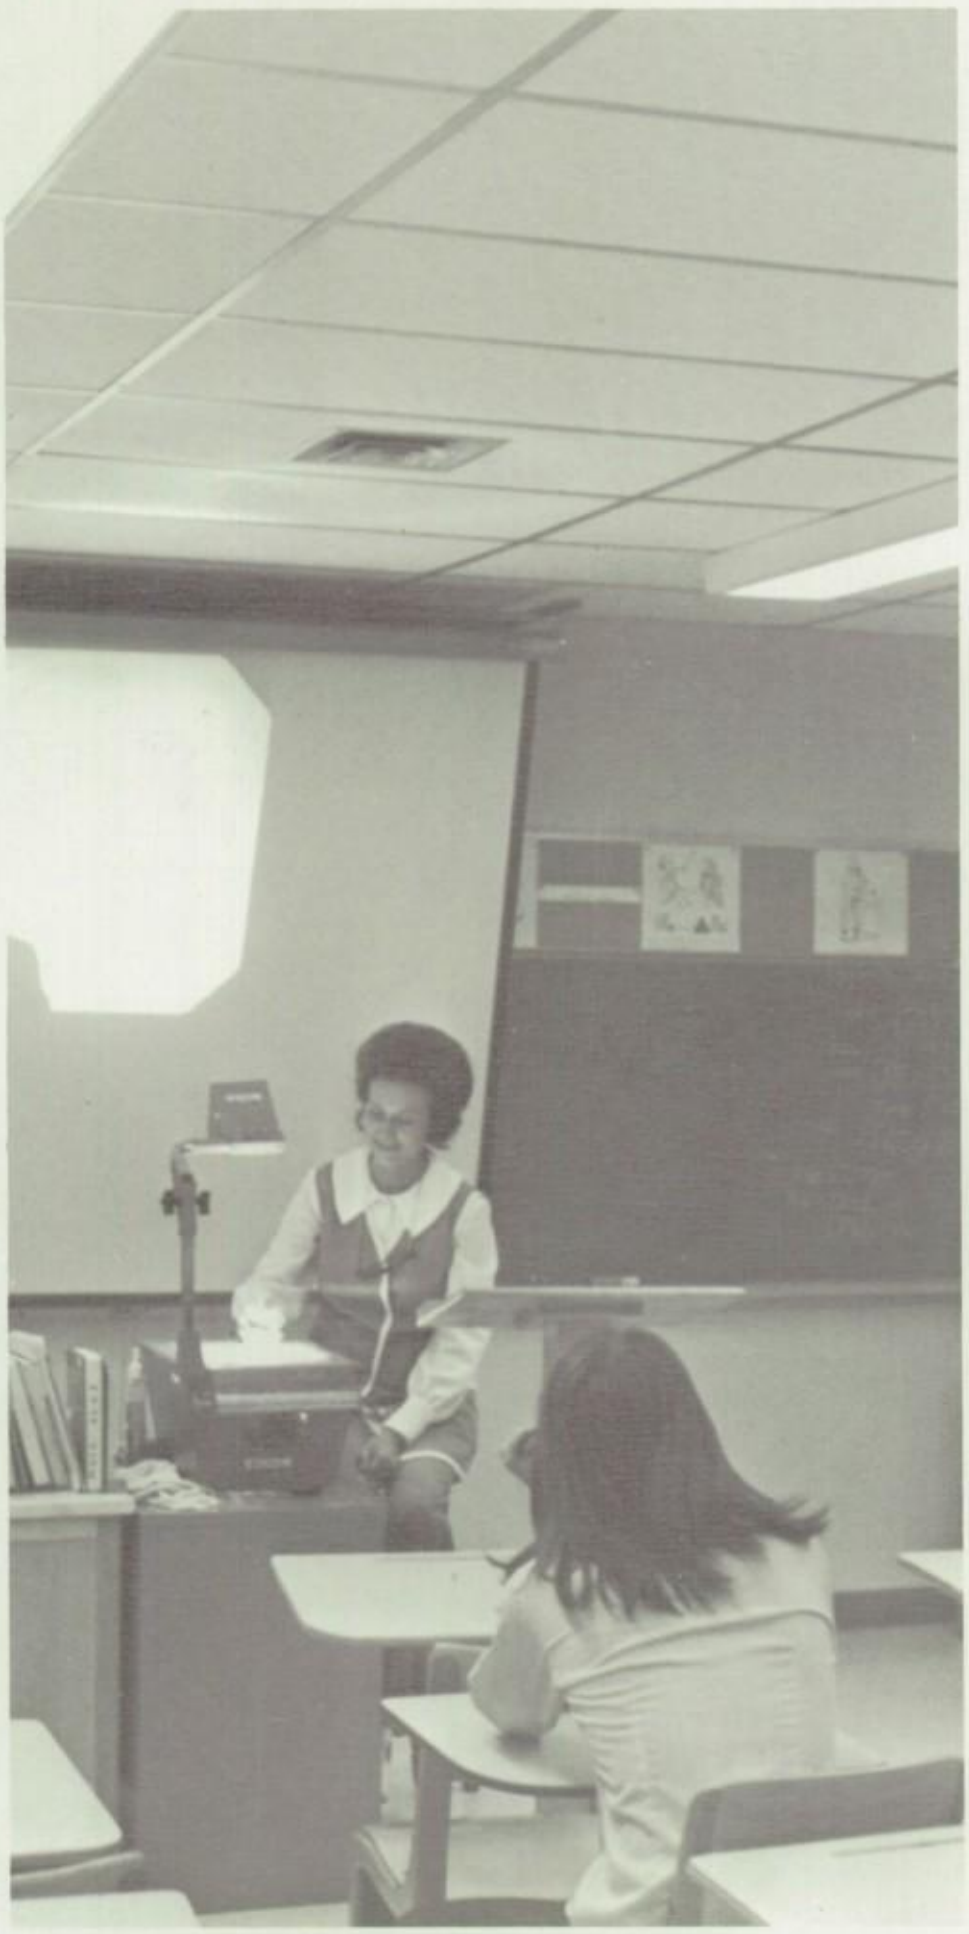
Ed McCray

LaVenia Daniels
Lawrence Peck

Wayne Holstein
Luther Younger



Mr. Larry Peck believes that a study of mathematics is important to high school students because it is the foundation for all science.



Mrs. Daniels explains radicals through the overhead projector to her Intermediate Algebra class.

Greg La Plante, Jim Ledbetter, and Betsy Headrick are completing an assignment in the Mathematics Resource Center.

Mathematics

Trigonometric functions,
measuring unmeasurable objects:
How high is our flagpole?
How wide is the Arkansas?
Vocationally speaking,
it doesn't sound difficult to add and subtract,
but it's important on the cash register.
Back in theory,
the square on the hypotenuse on the right triangle is equal to the sum of squares on the other two sides.
Mr. McCray: "Don't say you don't understand,
say you don't know."
Word problems.
Mrs. Daniels: "Cancellation is a no-no in Algebra."
We can't talk in Algebra, so let's talk in the Resource Center.
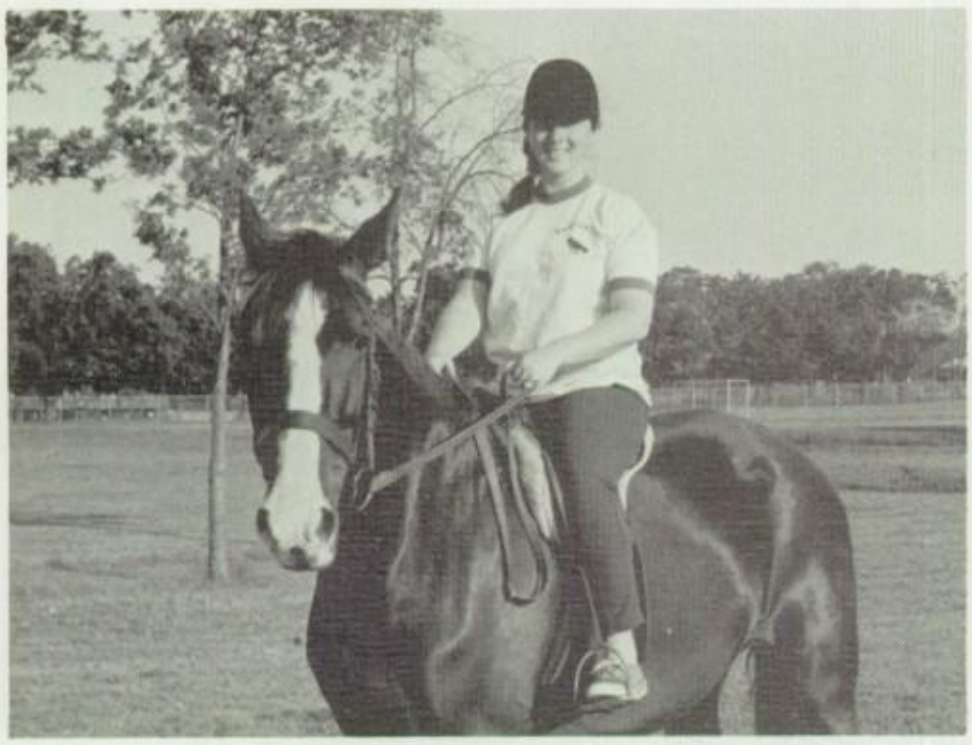
Mathematics is quite a challenge.

Gerald Clark
Pat Holder

Eddie Dyer
Penny Thomas



Shown up on Desert Flame, Mrs. Penny Thomas depicts the proper form for Eastern saddle equitation.

Paper work in physical fitness? You bet, admits Gerald Clark, P.E. instructor and coach.

Lori Johnson is shown on the balance beam during the highly competitive high school Olympics.

Physical Education

600 yard runs in 1:46, 2:00 for average, situps for two minutes, elbows to knees,
straining muscles,
breath control,
rope climbs, 18 ft. in 7.8,
sometimes we feel like monkeys.
The American Crawl and side stroke, two strokes, Mr. Clark says,
and two lengths of the pool,
all part of the physical fitness program.
Girls' gymnastics,
front walkovers, back hand springs, Chinese splits, cartwheels and soundoffs on the beam.
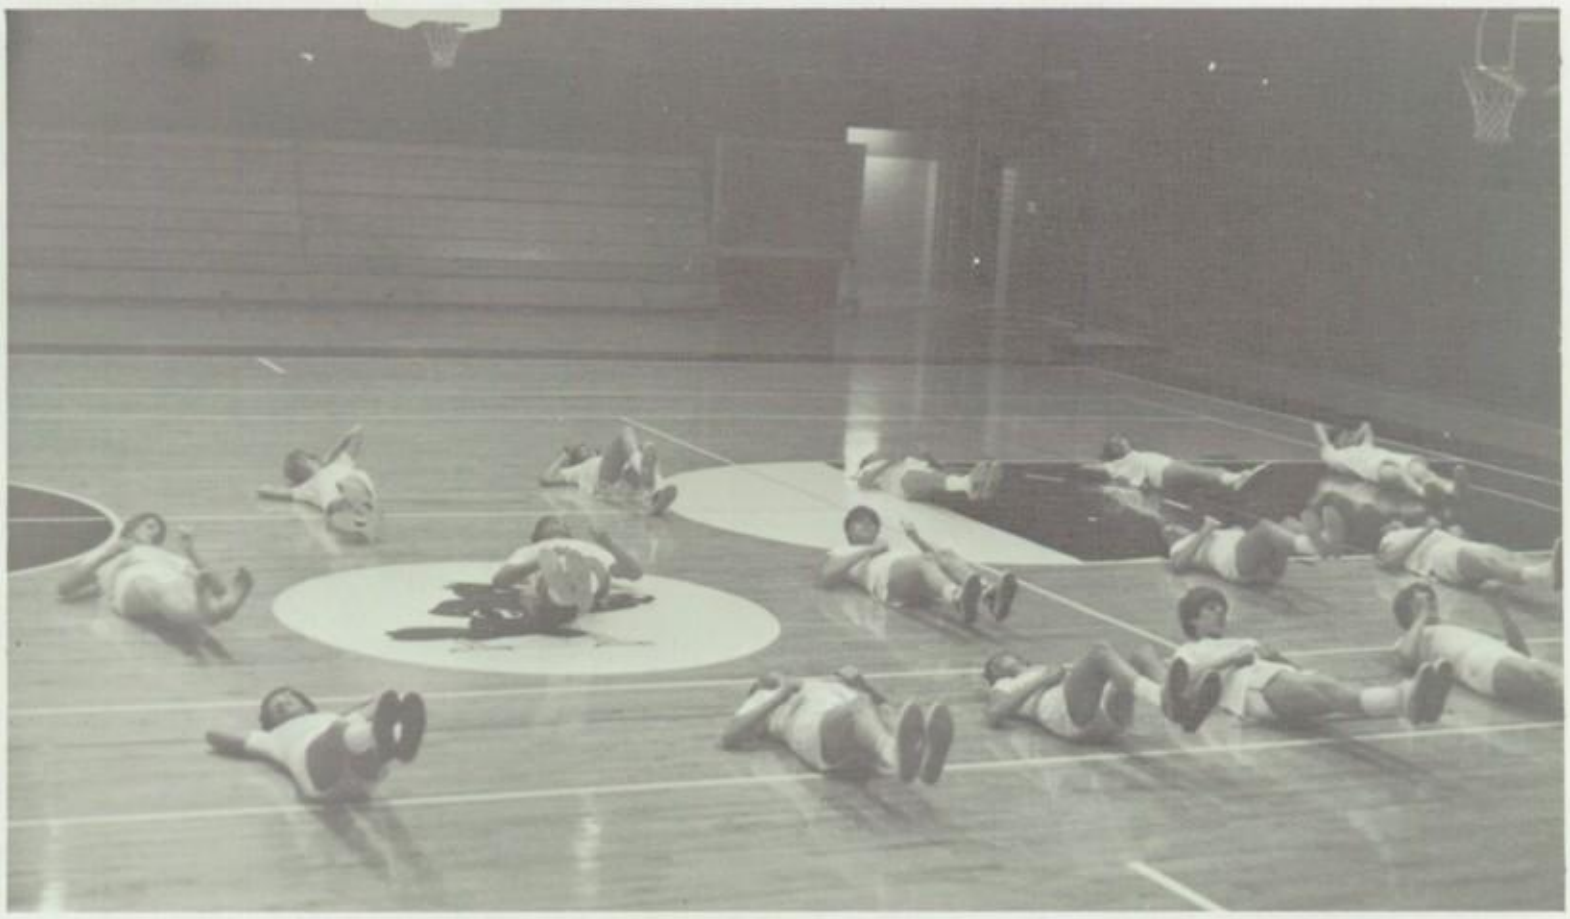
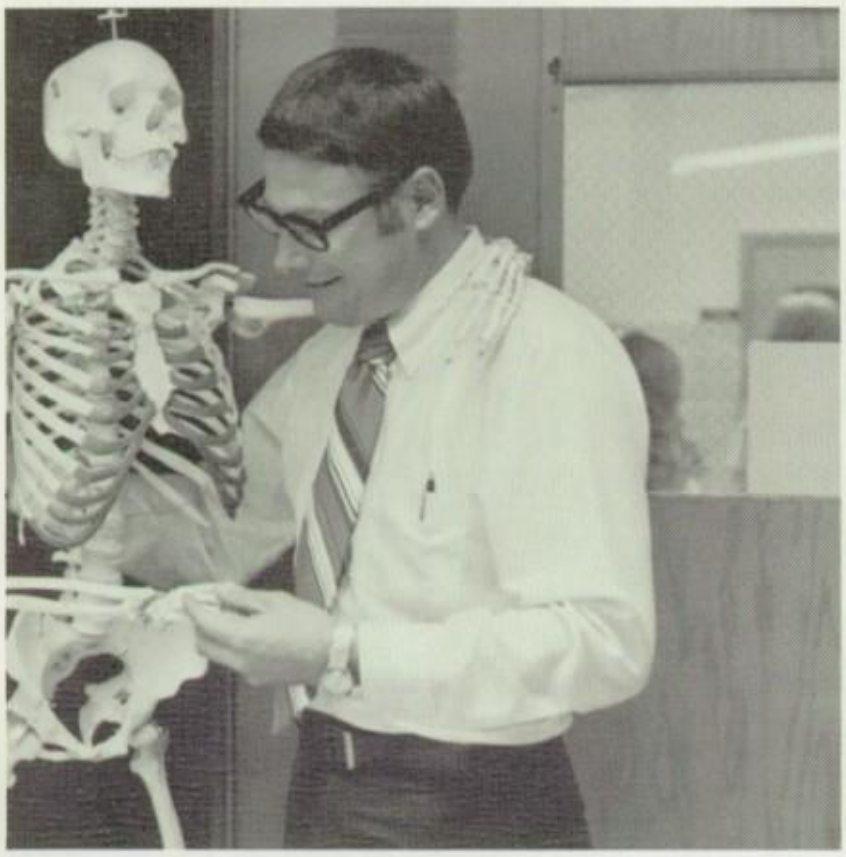
Large groups and horses:
English and western equitation,
grooming and shoeing . . .
eight events in Olympics this year,
girls go for pleasure or participation.



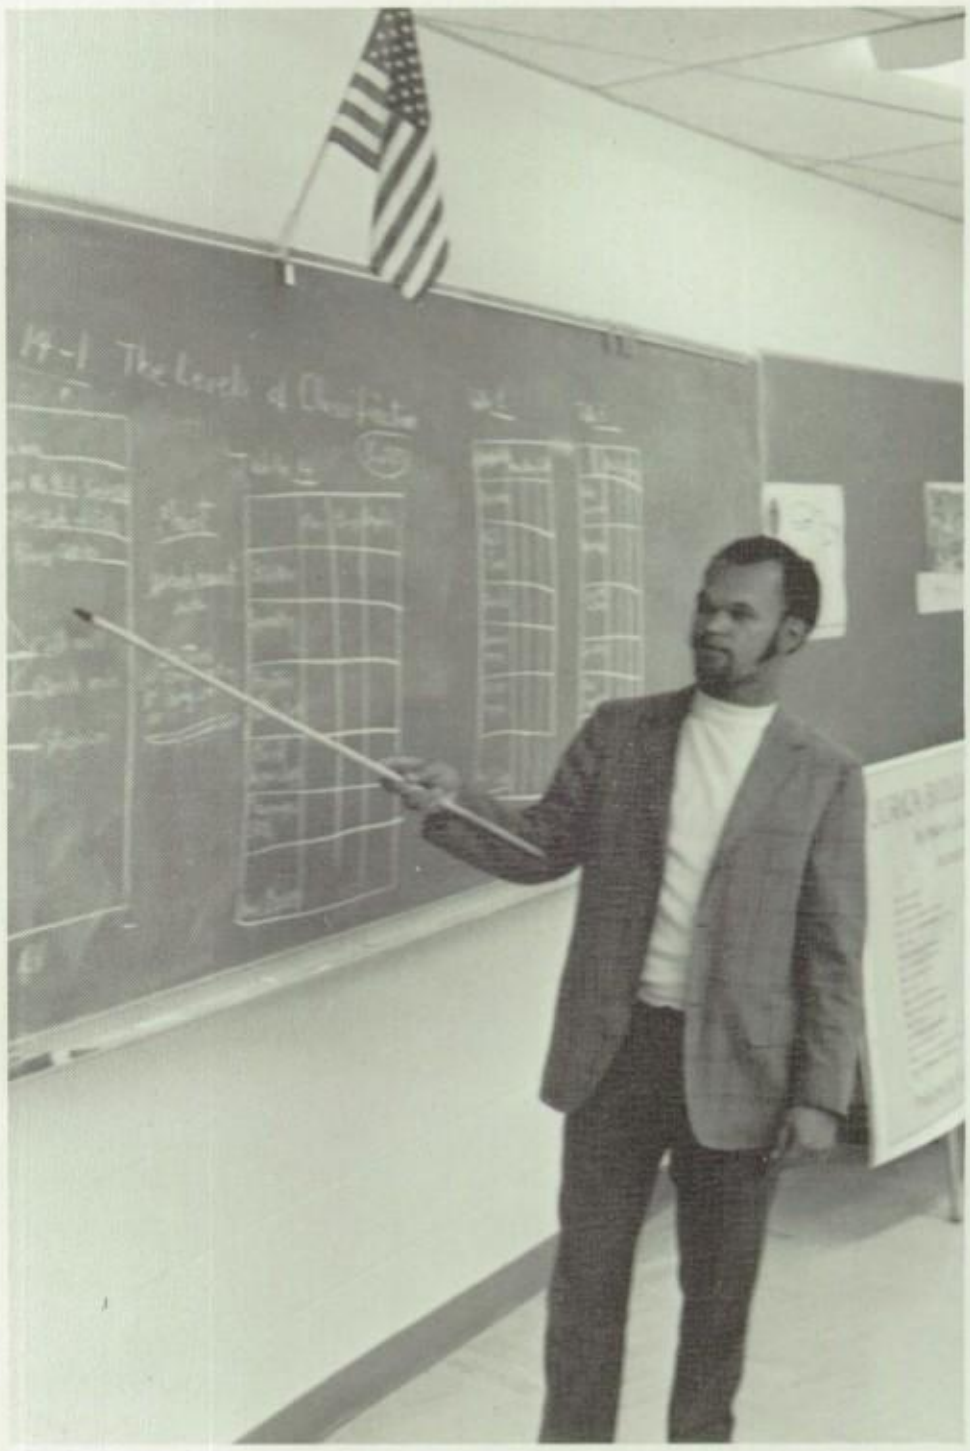
Boys in Physical Education classes find that leg lifts are real muscle builders.

Louis Crossley
George Hall
Max Matheson

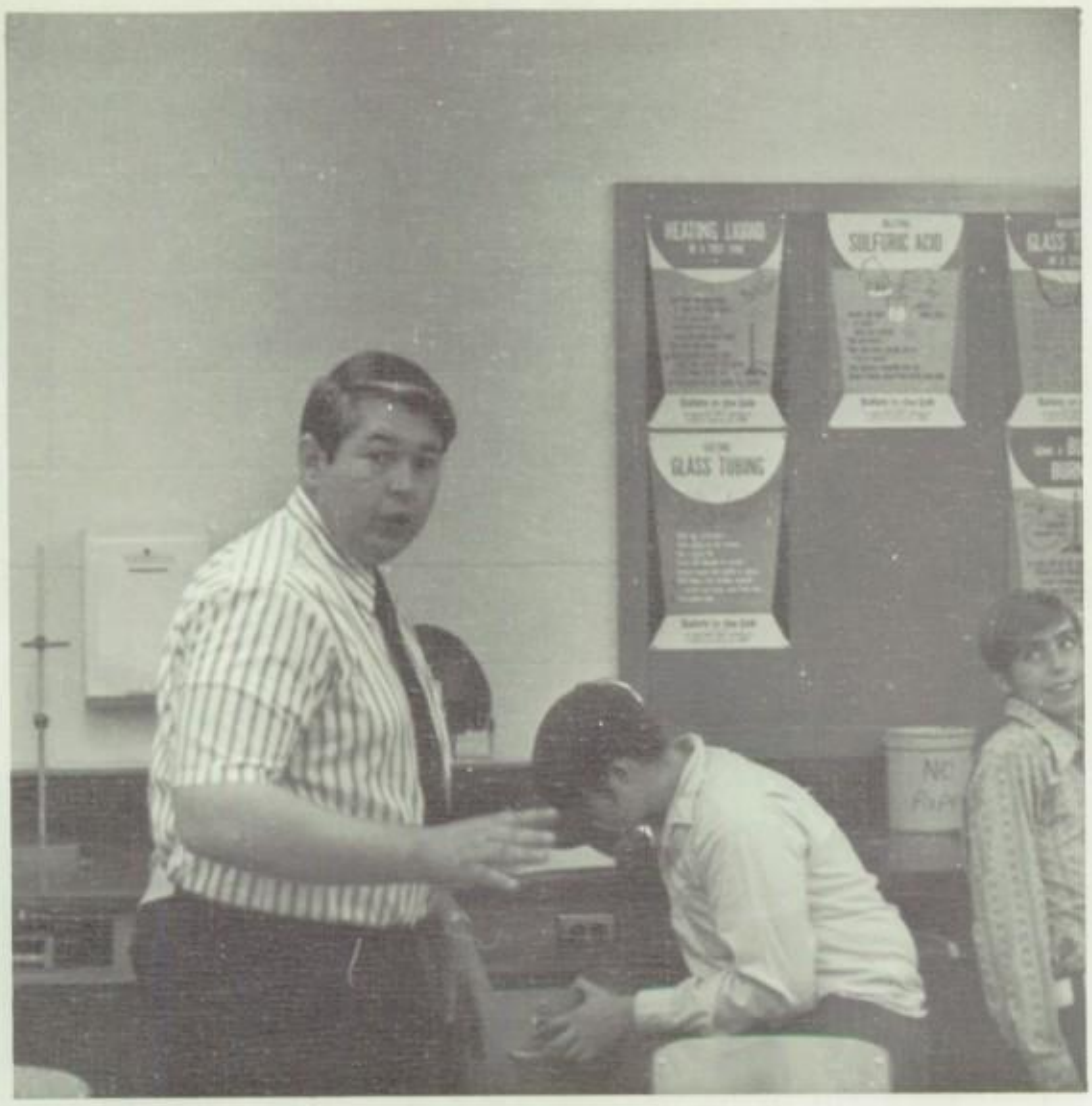
Denver McGee
Myrtle Rollerson
Pat Ward
Marilyn Yoachum



With the aid of the friendly skeleton, Max Matheson is able to teach bone structure.



Mr. Crossley, lecturing on the classification of animals, is preparing his class for a lab exercise.



Mr. Ward, Chemistry teacher, supervises a lab experiment.

Science

Dissecting piglets and frogs,
the smell of formaldehyde,
identifiying the bones on that female skeleton;
Mr. Matheson said it was too ugly to be a boy.
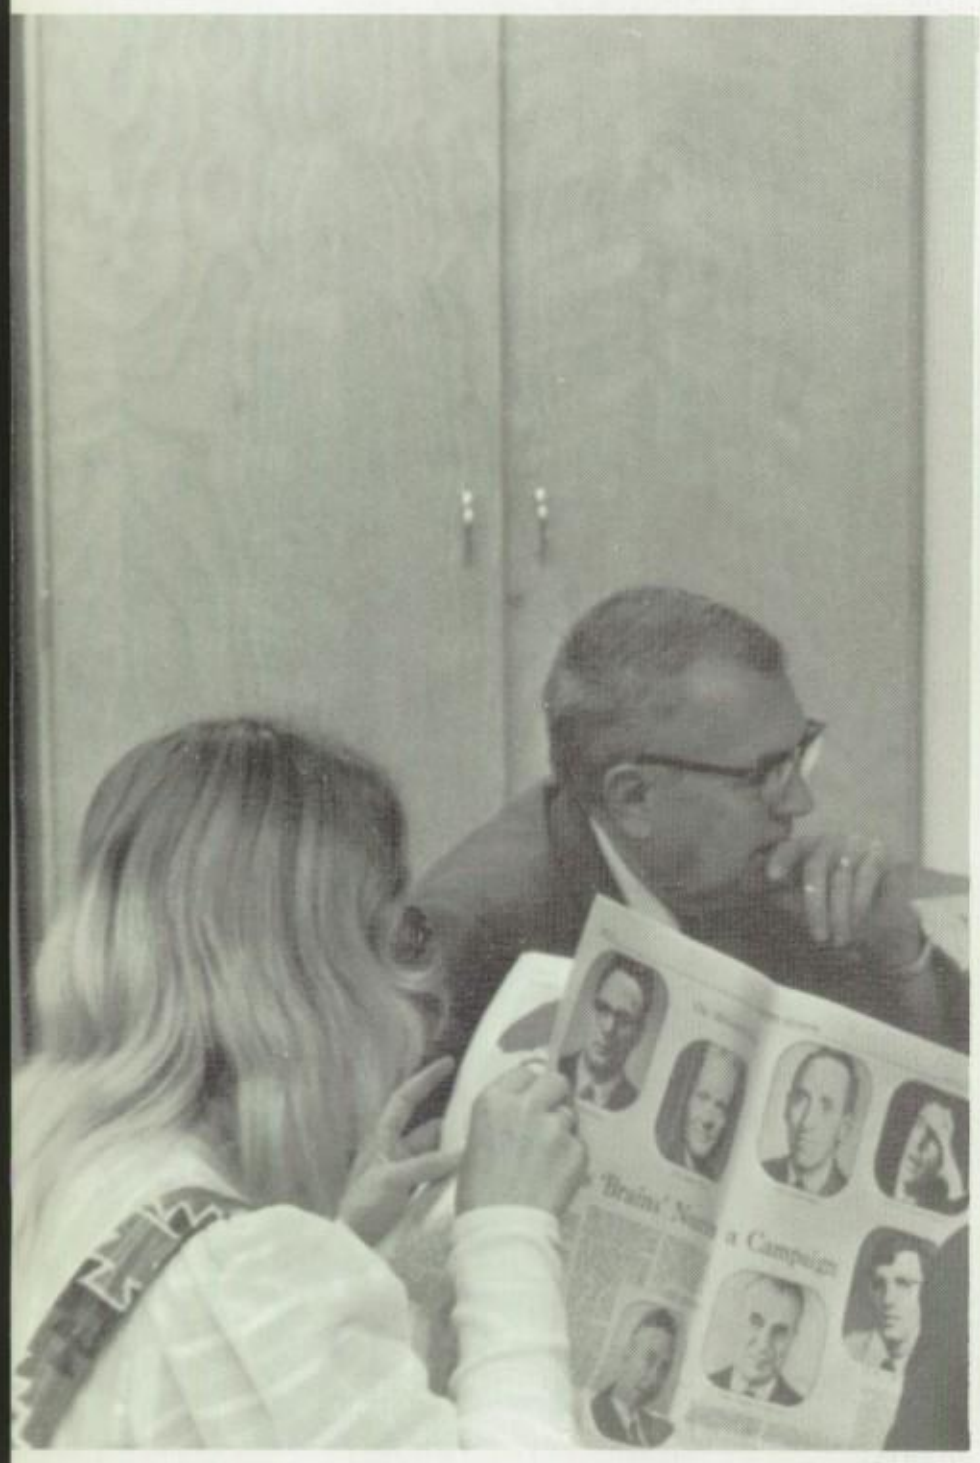
Lab experiments,
qualitative analyses,
test slides on unknown substances.
Unit test,
Mr. Ward: "Ready?"
Rock formations: igneous, sedimentary, and . . .
Physics: expansion of solids and liquids,
expansion of gases,
impulse and momentum, reistance and circuits,
Science is important to the future.

Under the watchful guidance of Mr. Denver McGee, Lisa Steinbeck works on a frog dissection and discusses the internal organs. Meredith Collins, Sherri Wimbish, and Mark Phillips look on with "that frog died for you" expressions.

O. D. Bell
Sue Ferguson
Herbert McDaniel
Wilma Millier
Robert Owen

Sterling Rice
Gerry Sargent
Bob Smith
Jim Smittle
Wesley White



One of the most active teachers at East Central is Mr. O. D. Bell, Chairman.

World History.
"A Study in Red," the film on Communism.
Mesopotamia - "The Land Between the Rivers."
Cramming for the 9 weeks' test,
The fall of Rome and the five weaknesses.
Mr. Bell and Government,
the Check and Balance system,
proper respect for authority and the rights of others.
Following political campaigns,
Newspapers, Newsweek, U. S. News and World Report;
In the U.S.,
from Reconstruction days to now,
Carpetbaggers and Scalawags,
"20 acres and a mule,"
Anybody could use that.
Sophs know about Teddy Roosevelt and his big stick policy,
Seniors see history in perspective.

Social Studies

Student conferences are prevalent in the History office. Mr. Bob Smith and Mr. Jim Smittle are shown with Brenda Miller, Jerry Weddington, and Lori Johnson.

Office Staff

June Aldrich
Selma Beair
Norma Briscoe
Dorothy Clampitt
Pat DeBoard

Virginia Dipboye
Mary Laughlin
Mary Ann Shiever
Ethel Thompson
Jan White

Scheduling students to see Mr. Payne, reviewing bulletin announcements,
early dismissal calls,
emergency messages for students,
"Tell Susie to go home and unplug the coffee pot."
Recording grades on cumulative records,
new enrollments, transfers, withdrawals,
PBX operations, homeroom cards,
forwarding transcripts, scholarship information,
everyone likes to hang around where it's busy.
Ordering school supplies,
selling: pencils, rulers, vocabulary notebooks.
Receive and deposit money, pay bills, keep books,
and they talk about bankers' hours!
And more
daily absences and computer cards,
AC-17's, bus passes, Lost and Found.
Fortunately, the office staff has a sense of humor.

In the left picture, Mrs. Selma Beair, Registrar, records grades and forwards copies of transcripts to colleges. Above, Mrs. Jan White, secretary to Mr. Payne, is shown handling an in-coming call.

Mr. Sneed and Mr. Cole handle all of the daytime plant maintenance at East Central.

After a hectic day of serving others, the cafeteria staff finally gets to relax.

Custodians Cafeteria Parent-Teacher Association

There are times when keeping school is much like keeping a big house.
Halls to scrub,
repairs to be made,
meals to cook,
dishes to wash . . .
and always on a tight time schedule.
East Central is operated on a 24-hour basis.
P.T.A. members stay in close touch with school administrators and teachers to round out a family tie with their students.

Hall of Fame

Once again, the faculty voted For Seniors they felt to be Outstanding in some way
Only 10% of the class can fit
In the Hall of Fame
This year fifty is the lucky number
Well, really 49.6
But who wants to be the .6?
Maybe you can play the clarinet
Or learn your lines
For "Curious Savage"
Or snap a good picture
Some of the students
May be academic Others may not Since character is what counts.

What is fate?
It is an unseen force
compelling men's lives
Or,
It is an excuse people use
for failure.
Everything in life,
Possessions, success, friends,
Even happiness,
is left in our hands
for us to work with.
What we do is our choice
Whether or not we pass a test or join a club is for us
To decide.
But,
What about tomorrow?
Are we counting on each day
To bring us excitement
Or do we let each day
float away without
Using any part of it?
When you think about it,
Everything we do in life,
Each day, every minute,
Is Up To Us.
